

Congress Releases Stiff Policy Stand On Red Aggression

Resolution Declares America
Will Use Troops in Hemisphere

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees unanimously approved today a resolution declaring the United States will use troops if necessary to resist Communist aggression in this hemisphere.

The joint resolution, which both Senate and House are expected to approve Thursday, would require the signature of President Kennedy and reflect unanimity between the White House and Congress in the determination by the United States:

"To prevent by whatever means may be necessary, including the use of force or threat of force its aggressive or subversive activities in any part of this hemisphere."

Determination

It also would put the President and Congress on record in asserting determination:

1. "To prevent in Cuba the creation or use of an externally supported military capability endangering the security of the United States."

2. "To work with the Organization of American States and with freedom-loving Cubans to support the aspirations of the Cuban people for self-determination."

Sens. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, John Sparkman, D-Ala., acting chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., ranking GOP member of the former group, developed the proposed language Tuesday in conferences with the House committee and the White House.

U. S. Determination

The resolution also would voice U.S. determination:

"To prevent in Cuba the creation or use of an externally supported offensive military base capable of endangering the United States naval base at Guantanamo, free passage to the Panama Canal."

Wirtz Predicts End Soon to CNW Walkout

Both Sides Near
Understanding on Arbitration Issues

WASHINGTON (AP)—Acting Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz predicts an end soon to the three-week strike of telegraphers against the Chicago & North Western Railway.

Both sides, he said Tuesday, seem to be near an understanding on the issues to be submitted to arbitration. When that is done the strike will be over.

President George Leighty of the striking AFL-CIO Order of Railroad Telegraphers hinted it might take weeks to agree on issues to be arbitrated. He suggested it might be quicker to continue negotiations.

Range of Arbitration

The C&NW board chairman, Ben W. Heineman, indicated that the range of arbitration could be agreed on quickly.

Wirtz said nothing developed at his meeting with the railroad and union to indicate any difficulty in determining which issues could be settled outright and which should go to arbitration.

The dispute, dragging on for five years, involves the railroad's demand for a free hand in making manpower economies and the union's demand to limit such layoffs or make them subject to negotiation.

Hard on Midwest

The railroad's shutdown has hit the economy of a large section of the Midwest where tons of corn and sugar beets and other crops are ready for movement to market.

Wirtz conferred with Leighty and other union officials again today but a Labor Department spokesman said it was not expected there would be any announcement of an agreement on issues for arbitration before late today or Thursday at the earliest.

State Public School Costs May Soar to $550 Million

Win Massachusetts Primaries

Kennedy, Lodge to Clash

BY RELMAN MORIN

BOSTON (AP)—Edward M. Kennedy, a sensational winner in the Massachusetts Democratic primary, looks like a political natural today, and his backers are predicting that he will drive through in November to a seat in the U.S. Senate.

It is the seat vacated in 1960 by John F. Kennedy when he was elected President.

"Very Pleased"

Ted crushed his opponent for the Democratic nomination, Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr., in a blitz that dumfounded his own supporters no less than McCormack's. Shortly after the first returns his headquarters notified President Kennedy at Newport, R. I., apartment to McCormack's headquarters, and then to a frantic, roaring victory celebration at the Touraine Hotel.

The younger Kennedy, who is 30 and making his maiden run for elective office, took it all with glacial calm.

By about 10 p.m., some three hours after the polls closed, he like this, was on his way from his Boston apartment to McCormack's headquarters, and then to a frantic, roaring victory celebration at the Touraine Hotel.

As he was hoisted onto the stage in the converted ballroom, he looked like a man who had been known all along that it would be like this.

His pretty blonde wife, Joan, stood beside him, fighting a losing battle against tears. She swallowed hard and her voice broke when she tried to speak into the microphones. "I'm so grateful," she choked. "I don't know what else to say."

His juggernaut victory appears to be the result of four main factors—the Kennedy name in Massachusetts, Ted's natural talent for politics, a precision-engineered organization, and a debate that backfired on his opponent.

Weeks before the election, a Boston politician told this correspondent, "He's got more political savvy already than his brother had in his first campaign. It seems to come more naturally

$17.7 Million Deficit

Tax Collection in State Falls Short

MADISON (AP)—Wisconsin's $6.7 million less than estimates, total tax collections for the fiscal year ending June 30 fell to $17.7 million short of original estimates, Tax Commissioner John Gronouski said today.

The commissioner noted, however, that although actual collections do not equal estimates for the first year of the biennium, "there is every reason to expect that collections will equal the original estimates for the current fiscal year which ends June 30, 1963."

The shortage was noted in an analysis of estimated and actual tax collections prepared for the State Department of Administration's Bureau of Management.

A summary showed individual income taxes $7.9 million below estimates, receipts from the state's new selective sales tax $6.7 million short, cigarette taxes $1.1 million down, and public utility taxes $1.4 million down. Liquor and beer taxes exceeded estimates by some $200,000, and were the only revenue sources to wind up on the plus side.

Income tax withholding collections were $5.2 million less than estimated. Gronouski said this loss was primarily due to some employers getting a late start in the new program.

Gronouski set actual collections from the selective sales tax during the five months it has been in force at $13.9 million. This is the result of four main factors—the Kennedy name in Massachusetts, Ted's natural talent for politics, a precision-engineered organization, and a debate that backfired on his opponent.

Public Expenditures Survey Predicts $382.9 Million Cost for 1962-63 Budget

MADISON (AP)—Wisconsin's total public school cost, estimated at $382.9 million for the 1962-63 school year, may soar to $550 million in five years if present spending policies continue, the Public Expenditure Survey warned today.

Contending that population explosion is not the main cause of rising school costs, the survey said the job could be done for far less if spending is limited to actual growth needs.

In its review of Wisconsin school costs, the agency said expected spending of $550 million by 1967 could be sliced to $481 million by pegging staff expansion and construction strictly to enrollments and by limiting teachers' pay raises to the same rate of income increase experienced by the state's total population.

Private Agency

The survey is a private research agency which serves statewide and local taxpayers organizations.

From its examination of school costs from 1955 to 1960, the survey noted that instructional costs dominate expenditures with average per pupil spending increasing from $315 in 1956-60 to $404 in 1959-60.

In suggesting that staff additions be restricted to enrollment increases, the survey said that in the last five years the number of build a economic partnership teachers has increased faster than the number of students.

The agency said that there has been "a recent emphasis on adding employees of the supervisory and administrator type."

Teachers' Salaries

Teachers' salaries make up about 65 per cent of operating costs, the survey found, and there is only a "minimal" teacher shortage in Wisconsin confined to special subjects.

The survey suggested that pay raises for teachers be kept in line with increased per capita income for the total population.

The agency said the average annual hike in teachers' salaries the period studied is eight per cent compared with a four per cent boost in Wisconsin personal income per capita during the same period.

As for classroom construction, the survey concluded Wisconsin has met needs of its public schools and has possibly even exceeded needs based on enrollments.

The study covers some aspects of the private school system and it reports that more than 32 per cent of the school age population in Wisconsin attends non-public schools.

The survey estimated that if all students in private schools were placed in tax-supported elementary and high schools in the state tax costs would be increased $90 million a year.

Woman Killed in Car-Train Crash

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A 50-year-old grandmother was killed in a desperate effort to move her daughter's stalled car from the path of a train Tuesday.

Marjorie E. Smith of Roodhouse, Ill., her daughter and granddaughters were in the car when it stalled on a Wabash Railway Co. crossing. The others jumped out and fled.

Mrs. Smith slid in behind the steering wheel of the stalled car, trying to restart it. As the passenger train approached, Mrs. Smith jumped.

When the train hit the car the hurtling car hit Mrs. Smith.

Senate Vote On Trade Bill Likely Today

Measure Gives
Kennedy Power to Rip Tariff Walls

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate votes today on the historic trade bill which would give President Kennedy authority to rip down or lower tariff walls and the last five years the number of build a economic partnership teachers has increased faster than the number of students.

Passage seemed certain. The House has approved it.

Administration forces, after a shaky start, were in full command on the field as the Senate stayed past midnight to beat down amendment after amendment offered mostly by Republicans.

The Senate completed action on all but one of the proposed floor changes in Tuesday's marathon session.

Passage Delayed
Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana put off passage until after noon because of the late hour and because several members said they wanted to speak before the final roll call.

Tuesday's votes—preserving all of the sweeping tariff-cutting and trade adjustment powers Kennedy requested—apparently assured the President of one of the biggest triumphs of the 87th Congress.

British Commonwealth Leaders Give Go To Market Prop.

LONDON (AP)—Commonwealth leaders today gave Prime Minister Harold Macmillan a careful go-ahead to continue his efforts to lead Britain into the European Common Market.

The Commonwealth statesmen took the action on the firm understanding that Britain will take account of Commonwealth fears and seek a better deal for Britain's Commonwealth partners when negotiations with the six Common Market countries are resumed in two weeks.

Impact of Economic Aid to Cuba Lost

Soviets, Castro Boast of Trade Pact, but Military Build-Up Shadows Agreement

MIAMI — Overlooked in the storm kicked up by the shipments of Russian arms and military personnel to Cuba is the Communists' injection of economic aid to the island.

Both Russia and Cuba have been trumpeting a new trade agreement between the two countries, but the impact has been lost in the furor over the military build-up.

A communique issued in Moscow following the visit of Maj. Ernesto Guevara, Cuban Minister of Industries, revealed that Soviet-Cuban trade will total more than $700 million this year.

Trade May Double

It was further reported that the volume of maritime transport between Cuba and Russia will double the 1961 traffic.

According to an Havana radio broadcast, "This copious and generous aid from the Soviet Union has permitted Cuba to mock the Yankee imperialist blockade and serves as a stimulus to the Cuban people in their great task in the construction of socialism."

Revolution, the Fidel Castro regime's mouthpiece, scoffed at Washington's anxiety over Cuba's new military look. The newspaper claimed that agricultural and industrial assistance from Russia is more beneficial than military aid.

Biggest Plan

"This agreement when seen in all its parts is intended to strengthen Cuba economically," said Revolution.

The biggest plum in the Soviet-Cuban pact involves a pledge by Nikita Khrushchev to build an iron and steel plant in Oriente Province with a capacity of 1.3 million tons annually.

The Soviets also will reconstruct three small steel works, boosting their yearly output from 110,000 tons to 350,000. Together, the four mills will allow Cuba to produce more than 1,650,000 tons of steel each year by 1967.

Based on Politics

Guevara has boasted that Cuba will then rank as the largest producer of steel per capita in Latin America.

The stepped-up trade between Russia and Cuba is based more on politics than on the law of supply and demand. For Castro will pay for the Soviet goods in sugar — of which the Russians have a surplus.

Furthermore, Cuba's dependence on Russia extends beyond normal commercial relations.

Attend Schools

Last month, workers from 25 Cuban labor unions left for Russia to study at trade schools there for 10-months. Newly instituted labor and wage regulations in Cuba are patterned on the Russian system.

This means that all pay increases and rest periods granted workers must first be approved by the Ministry of Labor. A worker who commits an offense against the state by being tardy or absent without good cause is first admonished before his comrades and his name placed on the plant bulletin board. Repeated violations result in his suspension or transfer to another job.

New U.N. President Witty Diplomat With Commitment to West

Pakistan Delegate Has Had Long Career in High Office

CHICAGO Daily News Service — The newly elected president of the U. N. General Assembly is a witty, charming just and diplomat with a strong commitment to the West.

Sir Muhammad Zafrulla Khan of Pakistan, 69, is a British-educated lawyer, a Moslem who quoted an Arabic prayer from the Koran in his inaugural speech in the Assembly.

He has had a long career in high office, including nearly seven years as a justice on the World Court.

Long Speeches

Sir Zafrulla is noted at the United Nations for his long speeches, without notes, asserting Pakistan's position before the Security Council in demanding a plebiscite in Indian-held Kashmir.

His opponent frequently has been Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon in these debates.

While he followed the British and other Commonwealth nations in favoring eventual seating of Communist China in the U. N., he spoke for his American-allied government in siding with the West on so-called cold war issues.

Avoids Commitments

As Assembly President he was careful in his first press conference to avoid committing himself on current U. N. issues. He did make clear his "feeling" that the Assembly will endorse the World Court advisory ruling requiring payment of Congo assessments.

Before India-Pakistan partition and independence, he served in high posts as a delegate to the round table conferences in the early 1930's, president of the all-India Muslim League, head of the Indian delegation to the League of Nations 1939 assembly and Judge of the federal court of India.

For Pakistan he has been foreign minister and U. N. delegate. While on the International Court of Justice he was vice president

Mississippi Desegregation Crisis Grows

College Board Faces Threats of Contempt Suits, Politics

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Contempt of court threats and mounting political pressure caught the State College Board from opposite sides today in the University of Mississippi desegregation crisis.

Board members planned to handle routine affairs of the state colleges in committee meetings on the eve of a regular board session Thursday. A source close to the college board said, however, a called meeting to handle the desegregation problem was possible.

50-Mile Trip

James Meredith, a 29-year-old Kosciusko Negro, remained just across the Tennessee line at Memphis, waiting on his attorneys to advise him when to make the 50-mile trip to Oxford to register as the university's first Negro student.

As the showdown neared, the Justice Department won federal court permission at Hattiesburg to launch contempt of court actions if Ole Miss defied a court order directing the acceptance of Meredith as a student.

On the other side, the Mississippi Legislature adopted a resolution praising Gov. Ross Barnett's "fearless and courageous stand." The Senate passed the resolution unanimously and the House by a 130-2 vote.

Even If Jailed

Barnett urged state officials last week to defy federal court desegregation orders even if it meant jail.

The governor expressed a willingness to go to jail himself, but board Vice President Dr. Verner Holmes of McComb said the court order did not name Barnett and the only board members and university officials would be jailed in the event of contempt.

Clarify Status of Drug

Three Types of Vaccine Needed To Combat Varieties of Polio

BY ARTHUR J. SNIDER

Chicago Daily News Service

CHICAGO — The decision to approve Sabin Vaccine Types I and II for all but withhold Type III from adults has caused some confusion in the oral vaccine program.

The Chicago Daily News has interviewed virologists who attended the meeting of the polio vaccine advisers in Washington last weekend. Here in question and answer form is an attempt to clarify the vaccine status.

Q. Why is it necessary to take three different types of Sabin vaccine?

For Antibodies

A. Because the three known types of virus causing polio create their own distinct protective antibodies in vaccine form. Only Type I vaccine will protect against all strains of Type I virus, and so on. To protect a population against every kind of polio virus, people must acquire antibodies for all three types.

Q. Why not take all three types at the same time?

A. Vaccines of Types I, II, and III interfere with each other if administered simultaneously by mouth.

Most Important

Q. What is the most important of the three types?

A. Type I has been responsible for about 85 per cent of polio cases in the past.

Q. How dangerous is Type II?

A. It is next in epidemic importance. Type II is seldom incriminated in the United States.

Current Alert

Q. Why the current alert on Type III?

A. There have been four cases of Type III polio among adults in Canada who were among the 4 million persons who received the vaccine. There are also some suspect adult cases in the United States.

Q. Why are adults infected with Type III and not children?

A. It appears that white collar adults who have lived in a sanitary environment for the last 30 or 40 years are more vulnerable to the virus. This is a factor not only of cleanliness but also of age.

Natural Immunity

Adults have less resistance than children but greater natural immunity. An adult case of polio is rare but when it does strike, it is much more severe.

Children, on the other hand, have more innate resistance because of youth but less natural immunity. The greater incidence of polio in children is a factor of greater exposure and, in the case of the unvaccinated, little immunity.

It is for these reasons that health authorities are recommending that all children be vaccinated with all Sabin vaccine types but that Type III be withheld from adults at the present time.

Africans to Have Noses Counted — But Not Easily

Chicago Daily News Service

NAIROBI, Kenya — More than 25,000 enumerators have fanned out over this British East African colony to count noses in Kenya's second census, the first since 1948.

Dugout canoes, horses and helicopters are being used by the enumerators to reach tribesmen in remote areas of this big game hunter's paradise.

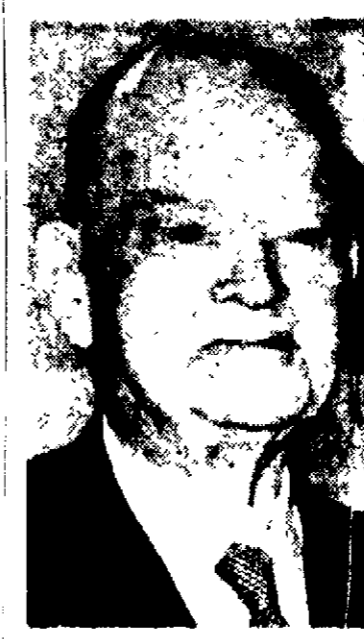

Enumerators are faced with certain local difficulties. Many tribesmen believe that to tell the exact number of people in one's family will lead to the death of a relative.

Others believe that the census is intended to halt tax evasion (a favorite outdoor sport here) or is a government trick to steal African land.

A certain amount of confusion arises from the practice of some tribesmen of changing their names according to the seasons.

Finally, some of Kenya's tribes are nomadic and must be chased from water hole to water hole to be counted.

So far enumerators in the Kwale district have had the roughest time: tribesmen there who objected to being counted threatened the census takers with poisoned arrows.

Actress Gets Divorce After Testifying Husband Beat Her

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Karen Sharpe, 28, got a divorce from actor Chet Marshall, 29, Tuesday after testifying he had beaten and cursed her.

Marshall withdrew a plea for $750 monthly alimony.

Asked what he did during their three-year marriage, he said: "I did very little, other than working for Karen."

He told a judge he went over scripts with her, rehearsed the lines, spoke them himself so she could imitate the nuances of his interpretations, and helped on the set with camera angles.

Miss Sharpe maintained that Marshall gave her only cursory help.

Marshall testified he is now in the advertising business but has no income from it.

Gronouski Says Sales Levy Can't Pay for Tax Relief

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin's selective sales tax is not capable of providing enough money each year to pay for the property tax relief promised in the state's new tax law, John Gronouski, head of the Department of Taxation, said Tuesday night.

He indicated that for the first year, 17 months of sales tax revenue is expected to meet the cost of lowering property taxes for the initial 12-month period.

"There are some things that are obvious," Gronouski said. "The original estimate of sales tax revenue was $62 million a year. That would never equal the $85 million a year cost of the property tax relief in the law."

"It appears the new law wasn't planned to make up the full property tax relief," Gronouski added. "I have to assume that the income tax rate changes were expected to bring in enough money to make up the difference."

The new tax law, including a three per cent selective sales tax and one per cent boost in income tax rates, was approved as a compromise between the Republican Legislature and Democratic Gov. Gaylord Nelson.

46-Story Hotel in New York 'Topped Out'

NEW YORK (AP) — The 46-story New York Hilton Hotel was "topped out" Tuesday and the American flag wasn't the only thing hoisted to its 487-foot peak.

The ceremonies marking the placing of the last steel beam atop the $75-million building on Sixth Avenue included a champagne party for officials on the fifth floor.

Right along with the last beam was hoisted a table set with glasses and a jeroam—a 104-ounce bottle of champagne for the construction workers.

New York GOP To Renominate Rockefeller

Democrat Opponent Promises Incumbent 'Fight of His Life'

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Republicans renominate Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller today to lead a GOP fight against a Democratic ticket that his opponent promised would give the governor "the fight of his life."

Rockefeller will be acclaimed tonight a candidate for re-election in November during the final session of a harmonious two-day state convention here.

The Democratic convention, at times a tumultuous and chaotic meeting, ended quietly in Syracuse Tuesday night after the selection of prisoner-swap lawyer James B. Donovan to run for the U.S. Senate on a ticket headed by Robert M. Morgenthau, the gubernatorial nominee.

Challenge Javits

Donovan, 46, has been negotiating with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro for the release of invasion prisoners. He also played a key role in the exchange of Soviet spy Rudolph Abel for U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers.

Donovan will challenge Sen. Jacob K. Javits, New York's senior senator, who won renomination by acclamation from Republicans Tuesday night.

Javits, seeking a second term, was the only candidate named at the first day's sessions. Rockefeller's other running mates were lined up for nomination today.

Negro Selected

Another Democrat selected Tuesday night is a Negro—the first of his race to be chosen by either major party to run for a statewide office in New York.

He is Edward Dudley, 51, borough president of Manhattan and former U.S. ambassador to Liberia, named to run for attorney general against the Republican Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson for re-election.

the Democratic ticket, Governor John J. Burns, 41, a Union, candidate for lieutenant governor; Comptroller Arthur Levitt, 61, of Brooklyn, the only member of his party elected to a statewide administrative office in the Rockefeller landslide four years ago, nominated for re-election; and John Sculley, 54, of Queens, a State Supreme Court justice, to run for associate judge of the Court of Appeals.

Besides Rockefeller, Javits, and Lefkowitz, Republicans will run Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson for re-election.

Catholic Educator Outlines Problems

Father Klieber Stresses Effect Of Two Recent Court Decisions

The Rev. Richard Klieber, Catholic educators, to change this Green Bay diocesan superintendent of schools, Tuesday outlined problems facing Catholic schools, stressing two recent court decisions, at the diocesan teachers' convention in Green Bay.

The recent U. S. Supreme Court decision ruling unconstitutional the saying of a prayer in New York schools "is the first step to making secularism the country's official religion," he charged.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court's decision voiding the transportation of parochial school students reflects the attitude of the majority in the state, he went on. "It is our duty, the duty of the

Injured Tailbone Hard To Heal, Says Molner

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D. no more heal than they'd crack Dear Dr. Molner: Once the coccyx has been injured by a fall, is there any help or cure for it other than by surgery? Mrs. J. B.

The coccyx is the tailbone. It's a projection from the bottom of the spine, which, theory has it, may be a vestige of many. Dr. Molner many years ago, when the fore-runners of mankind had tails.

If this projection is damaged by a fall, there isn't much that can be done about it. Surgery may be advisable in some extremely severe cases, but these are not anywhere near as common as is the type of injury that doesn't disable its victim but annoys him for what seems an endless period before it finally heals.

If we bruise or otherwise damage an elbow, we automatically favor it until it heals. We don't lean on it. We are careful not to bump it.

But the coccyx is located where it is subjected to pressure when we sit down. It's difficult to favor the spot.

My best suggestion is that anyone suffering from an injured coccyx experiment to find the chair and the position that permits the easiest sitting. An inflatable cushion sometimes helps considerably.

Eating Starch

Dear Dr. Molner: Will eating ordinary laundry starch harm a person? — Mrs. J. G.

I've heard of this dietary oddity quite a few times. There's nothing harmful in starch. It carries calories, but if you aren't overweight I know of no reason why it should hurt you. Personally, I don't care for the stuff except in my collars.

Cracked Thumbs

Dear Dr. Molner: I read your article about the woman who complained that her fingers cracked from detergent. I had the same trouble. My thumbs would on the other side I changed hands of wash powder and also liquid detergents. So I returned to what I used for dishes before my hands began to crack. I haven't had a cracked thumb in a year now — E. S.

Thank you, E. S. One person's pie is another's poison. Some people can use soap and not detergents; some can use detergents and not soap. Some can use either, but may be sensitive to the paint on a broom handle or to some other household appliance.

The important thing is to recognize that these are often cases of "contact dermatitis," or skin disease resulting from touching something. A product or material isn't bad because it happens to bother you. It's just that you happen to be sensitive to it. Experimenting will usually show that some other product or material will do what you want it to do without causing skin troubles.

Offensive Breath

Dear Dr. Molner: Is there any way one can determine if one's own breath is offensive? I often have an unpleasant taste in my mouth and am self-conscious about my breath. As you know, no one is ever told about this condition. Is there anything to be done besides gargling and keeping the teeth clean? — D. M. F.

Many people are overly concerned about bad breath when they do not have it; most who do have offensive breath aren't aware of it.

The best thing to do is to ask a relative or very close friend to tell you.

In cases of bad breath there is more to consider than gargling and brushing teeth. Some people with rather uneven teeth may have crannies in which bits of food become jammed and decay fragrant. Gum diseases can have a bad odor; so can bad tonsils, nasal infections, or ailments of throat or lungs. Bronchietasis is one such. Obviously, neither gargling nor toothpastes can do much about some of these causes. They must be found and cured.

An Editorial Boner

There was a serious blunder in a Post-Crescent editorial which a number of readers happily have called to our attention, including the author of a People's Forum letter today.

The editorial advocated a closed rather than an open primary for Wisconsin. The particular paragraph which caused the trouble was as follows:

"The remedy for this situation is a closed primary law. Under such a law all voters would be required to register before the primary by party. Democrats would register as Democrats, Republicans as Republicans and they would be required to vote for the candidates of those parties not only in the primary but also in the general election, unless of course the voter went to the trouble of changing his registration."

The Post-Crescent did not mean to say this. A closed primary would force voters to register before the primary and then vote in the primary in their own party. Obviously they should be free to choose between all candidates in a general election.

The Forum writer is absolutely right when he says that any other system would be an infringement on constitutional rights. Not only did the writer of the editorial make this mistake. The copy went through the hands of two editors and was not caught.

All of which only goes to prove that editorial writers and editors are also human.

Chamber of Commerce Week

This is Chamber of Commerce Week and tomorrow the Appleton Chamber will put on a one-day membership campaign.

While the Chamber generally is an organization of the community's business interests, its reasons for being extend far beyond the limited one of doing something for its members. The Chamber is an instrument through which individual citizens can mobilize their efforts for community betterment. It can commandeer the best brains in the community and organize this talent for community development.

It is the responsibility of the Chamber to think ahead. A project begun today may not be realized for years, but on the other hand projects which are under way today often can be traced back to a meeting at the Chamber offices when the idea was first proposed.

Cities do not just grow. They are the result of unending work by groups of citizens who place the welfare of all over the inertia of the individual. Appleton today is what our forefathers made it. The Appleton of tomorrow will be just what the present generation envisions.

Cooperative effort is the effective way to realize community goals. Tomorrow's campaign will give many people in Appleton an opportunity to find out how they can pool their efforts through the Chamber of Commerce for future good.

Manitowoc's Bit of Sputnik

The people of Manitowoc surely are entitled to have the pieces of the Soviet Sputnik IV returned to them for display in their museum when the government is through with its study of the material. The fact that portions of it have been cut away for examination by American scientists and possibly for sending a piece of it to Russia may add to its interest in later years.

In the meantime, however, the government's offer to present a piece of the material to Russian representatives may have served a useful purpose. The first reaction on the part of the Russian ambassador was to refuse it and to deny its connection with Sputnik IV. Probably this was merely an attempt to avoid responsibility for such falling material. However, second thoughts and Russian curiosity may change this stand.

The popular notion that we already have done more than enough for the Russians is quite correct. While the Russian ambassador was refusing the scrap from Sputnik, a delegation of Russian agricultural leaders was making a study of Wisconsin agriculture. From the news reports it is quite clear that American agriculture experts and our leading farmers have spared no efforts to give these Russian visitors full information on Wisconsin's very successful farm program. In the past we have assisted the Russians in many other fields with the same sort of advice and instruction. Not long ago we were passing out such information to the Russians with the rather smug attitude that we had plenty of know-how to give away but that the Russians had nothing to give us in return. That no longer is true. In fact, the Russians have many things and much knowledge in the space field which we could use to advantage. However, they are not only not sharing it with us but they are loudly condemning any effort on our part to find out what they are doing in these fields.

It is well known of course that they have big boosters for space vehicles which are far more powerful than ours. These boosters are one of their principal claims to leadership in this field. However much we need such boosters we get no help from the Russians.

While we probably could not in good conscience withhold information which will assist the Russians in increasing their food production, there is such a thing as a swap. And if the Russians were to swap some of their space information for better food production information they probably would still be getting the best of the bargain. As it is now, it's a one-way deal.

Blow Whistle on Callers

Appleton police in cooperation with the Wisconsin Telephone Co. have solved the case of a youth who made 79 obscene calls to women in the Fox Cities.

The case was solved after a great deal of hard work on the part of both police and phone company officials. Since the advent of automatic dial equipment, it has become very difficult to trace calls.

As a result, many of these "nuisance" calls go unreported to police. There is in research stages a device which can be attached to a telephone. By pressing a button during the phone conversation, the line can be "frozen," making it possible to easily trace the call.

Until such a device becomes readily available, there is little which can be done in tracing the calls.

However, for the person who is bothered with obscene or threatening calls, a law enforcement official in the East has come up with a suggestion.

"If a person is constantly plagued by these calls, we suggest he keep a police whistle next to the phone.

"When an obscene call comes, blow the whistle as hard as you can into the receiver. Chances are, the calls won't continue."

Reservist Wonders If Call-Up Is Really Necessary Militarily

Editor, Post-Crescent:

With the approval of President Kennedy's request for authority to call up 150,000 Reserve members being almost a sure thing, I would like to take this opportunity to express my opinions before finding myself among this select group.

As an Active Reserve member who has an obligation to defend his country in war or in peace with his life if necessary, I would like to give a personal reaction on the "possible" call-up.

The reasons given for requesting this authority were: the crisis in Berlin and in Cuba. Perhaps we might just briefly touch on these trouble spots.

A year ago. The only variable is WHEN the Russians may decide to plot new "incidents" or "provocations." Certainly, we know through long experience should by now that the Russians are not backing down, and are always pursuing a goal of world domination by a communist system. As such, the Berlin problem in reality has not changed from a year ago.

As for Cuba, one certainly views with alarm the recent flow of military arms into this small but potentially dangerous island only 90 miles from our shores. But what have we done about this situation — or perhaps best said, what has our President done? He has repeatedly come out with the statement that he "would not permit aggression in this hemisphere," but does this do anything about solving the problem? Who was the main reason for allowing the situation to get into this state? For inter-

Error in Editorial on Closed Primary Pointed Out by Writer

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Are we guaranteed freedom under the Constitution of the United States or are we not?

In the issue of Thursday, Sept. 13, you printed an editorial entitled "Wisconsin Open Primary Policy." You stated that the outcome of the Republican primary for governor illustrates the weakness and danger in the open primary law. Further, you state that the remedy to this situation would be a closed primary law. This would make it necessary to register by party before the primary, voting straight party lines in the primary and, further, by straight party lines, as registered, in the general election.

No country, state, county, city, village, town or township is big enough to force people to vote for certain people or parties. This violates every person's basic rights and freedoms as guaranteed in the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. You can bet your bottom dollar that there are dangers and weaknesses in the open primary law, far more so in the closed primary law. It is a request for more rigid control of the voters, denying them their freedom of choice. Every citizen of this country should be able to vote as he pleases whether he wishes to vote straight party lines, split party lines or for any individual running for office regardless of party. I, for one will never vote in any primary or general election that requires one to vote by party lines. I maintain that I have the right to vote for the people of my choice and not be told or forced to vote this way or that way — this is every voter's right.

The more the vote is controlled the closer we come to dictatorship or one party government. Then no one will be allowed to vote. The people's choice, under today's laws is hardly audible and its vote is too rigidly controlled. Please let us keep this a government by the people's choice. Let us not allow any governing bodies to pass laws that restrict the voting privileges of our biggest asset—the individual citizen. You may say that the people are responsible for these laws because they elected the various assemblymen, senators, congressmen, etc. That is true, but there are many, many laws passed by these elected officials that the average American citizen can do nothing about. They are only passed to enhance the people and parties that are ruling at those particular times and are a very substantial danger to the individual's rights and freedoms.

There are many, many laws passed that are for the benefit of this country and the majority of the people, that every citizen must live by, through conscience, honor and obey, but the restricting of an eligible citizen's vote in any manner will uproot this country's previous birthright of freedom.

These restrictions give added impetus to Franklin Roosevelt and Kennedy's goal of making this government a social government. After socialism comes communism. JFK has made shambles of the Monroe Doctrine by his treatment of Cuba. If Teddy Roosevelt were alive and president we would already have cleaned up Russia, China and Cuba.

Looking Backward

Motor Report on Antietam Battle

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Motor for Sept. 13, 1862

The latest war news is that the whole rebel army is being annihilated or captured but still later intelligence leaves in doubt the extent of the successes of the Army of the Potomac.

We hear of 15,000 or 20,000 rebels being taken, that there have been terrible losses on both sides — that Longstreet and Hill are captured — that Hill is dead — that the rebels are terribly beaten — that everything is glorious; but we do NOT hear that the Army of the Potomac has either destroyed or captured the demoralized rebel army. But the thing is not decided yet, and we still have hope that we will hear good news in that quarter, the rank and file of our army being of unequalled bravery.

Later reports announce that on Wednesday McClellan gave the rebels in Maryland four hours to surrender; they having refused, he went at them again and the field was completely covered with the dead and wounded. They were completely surrounded on all sides with the alternative of surrender or be swept from the face of the earth.

Col. E. S. Bragg of the Sixth Wisconsin was killed. The Irish patriot, Francis Meagher, also was killed in recent battles.

There Are Hints That Reynolds Is Playing Down Sales Tax Issue

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON, Wis. — The one clear-cut important issue in the state campaign for control of the state government is the question of tax policy.

Philip Kuehn, the Republican nominee who starts with the prestige of a good vote in a hard-fought primary election, stands unequivocally for a modified sales tax as an inevitable extension of the income tax-property tax system of the last half century in an era of exploding governmental costs.

John W. Reynolds, the Democratic nominee for governor, has chosen to stand against sales taxation — and even against the introductory sales tax act enacted under the Democratic Nelson administration of which he is a part — and for higher income taxes, the details remaining to be told.

The behavior of those Wisconsin citizens who participated in the primary elections last week may very well be suggestive of public attitudes on that basic and predominant issue.

GOP PREFERENCE

Both Republican candidates for the governorship announced at the beginning that they regarded sales taxation as inevitable. The distinction between Wilbur Renk and Kuehn was insignificant, and related to details and mechanics rather than principle.

Both Republicans made it perfectly clear that the income tax levels have reached maximum weight — and that the new money changing times require must be raised by other means. At the same time Reynolds had made his position equally clear.

If this is the main issue, what conclusions can be drawn from the fact that two thirds or more of the voters in the typical precincts of Wisconsin chose to vote in the Republican primary, to choose between two Republican candidates, and to ignore the Democratic aspirant who had hitched his cause so confidently to the stand-pat tax position?

There is no possible deduction save that the sales tax is no longer the vote-catching issue that the Democratic candidate and the hard-core liberals have fancied that it is. In this instance, as so often in political affairs, the voter is out ahead of many of those who would lead him in the political arena.

Wilbur Renk during his campaign of nearly a year for the Republican nomination for governor desperately needed an issue that would identify him, distinguish him from his regular Republican rival, and give the rank and file voter something to differentiate him from the party orthodoxy that Kuehn represented. He could have chosen the sales tax question. No doubt he considered it. But he did not use it. Manifestly he had concluded that the merits of the situation did not justify it. Probably he concluded also, as a very human person caught up in the excitement of the fight, that it would not be practicable either.

CHANGE OF EMPHASIS

It may be that Mr. Reynolds is having second thoughts about his choice of campaign themes.

For the last couple of weeks he has labored the "rightest" theme in Republican politics and the threats it holds, in his view, to the liberties of Wisconsin. In his election eve statements, when he doubtless spoke his most profound convictions, he talked about the menace of the "right wingers" who won control of the Republican party with the Kuehn nomination.

To the Democratic liberal, such as Reynolds, "right" is no longer a descriptive, but an epithet. The liberals who protested with such vituperative anger the "leftist" allocations of conservatives in other years and who regarded the McCarthy era as a period of unmitigated horror, now quite calmly employ against their contemporary opponents tactics they would denounce as "smears" if the tables were turned.

This is a nebulous cause, at the very best. No fair-minded person will be prepared to argue that one or the other of the candidates for governor is less or more loyal than the other. What may be significant here is the sidetracking of the tax policy issue that Reynolds and his camp so confidently planned to use as their keynote.

Stags Private Party Breaks-Up Office

WICHITA (AP) — A newspaper carrier, Stanley W. Brown, 17, and his dog, Midnight, were startled by a crash and tinkling glass as they made their rounds early one morning.

Brown stared at the broken window of the office of Charles F. Curry Co., and could see a young stag deer bounding around inside, jumping upon and over desks and chairs.

Stanley ran to call police. Midnight ran home.

Several attempts to capture the deer were unsuccessful. Finally it leaped out the window and hasn't been seen since.

Keys to the Kingdom('s) Cars Stolen

Chicago Daily News Service
LONDON — If somebody had stuck up the Bank of England and got away with the gold reserve the boys down at Scotland Yard couldn't have been more embarrassed.
The boys in blue were both insulted and injured Tuesday when a stray thief ran off with a complete set of 651 car keys capable of opening any auto made in Britain during the last decade.
The theft occurred when a squad of bobbies opened the door of a car that was parked in a non-parking area in Soho, one of London's most notorious criminal haunts and towed it off to a nearby police parking lot. Their precious box of keys was left behind by a lazy policeman because it was too heavy. There were indignant shouts when the lawmen returned five minutes later and found the box missing.
Local hoodlums, loafing nearby, got a big laugh out of the performance.

Several hours later the Air Force successfully launched a Minuteman missile from an underground silo on a 3,000-mile flight and moved the solid-fuel intercontinental range rocket near its operational goal of next month.

When he arrived here he discovered that Poland had ceased to be an independent country. The money he had with him and the funds he had left behind were worthless.

After accomplishing nothing in the first day of debate Monday, the Senate got down to business so earnestly Tuesday that it was able to act on 19 amendments. But it took the longest session of the year to do it, running 14 hours and 20 minutes.

Several major efforts to water down the bill were included in the defeated amendments, but none of the proposals touched the major powers in the bill.

These include authority to cut all present tariffs 50 per cent and a completely new power to eliminate duties entirely on products for which the United States and the European Common Market years.

The President had his closest call on the first amendment offered. Sponsored by Sen. Prescott Bush, R-Conn., it sought to write into the bill provisions of present law under which the Tariff Com-

Algeria's First Election Held Amid Chaos, Apathy

ALGIERS (AP) — Independent Algeria's first election campaign ends today amid chaos, tension and general apathy.
There is no doubt over the result in Thursday's elections: all the 196 candidates for the National Assembly—including 16 Europeans—are unopposed.
They were handpicked by Ahmed Ben Bella's ruling Political Bureau with the support of the regular army of Col. Houari Boumedienne, and will give Ben Bella an overwhelming majority in the assembly.
Expect Good Turnout
In eastern and western Algeria and in the Sahara, all under Boumedienne's firm control, a good turnout is expected from voters accustomed to being marched to the polls under French rule.
In the central Algerian areas controlled by the mutinous guerrillas of Wilaya (region) 4, voting is likely to be patchy.
The Political Bureau accused the Wilaya 4 commanders of sabotaging the elections in their districts by forcing voters to abstain and dispersing election meetings at gunpoint.

Discovery of Slipping Mind Great Pleasure

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—One of the great pleasures of middle age is the discovery that your memory is slipping. Then you can remember only your life even more enjoyable if folks hear only what they choose you pretend it has slipped even to

Loss of memory isn't so much a matter of physical aging in most men as it is a selective form of self-defense. It is affected by the kind of jobs they have, and how long they have been married. In general it might be said that the more people there are who feel they have a right to tell you what to do, the earlier your memory begins to show signs of failing. It is only by forgetting some of their insistent demands that you can remember to do some of the things you want to get done yourself. This is what is known as protective, or self-defensive, loss of memory.

Some people take an inordinate pride in their memories. They can remember all their past automobile licenses, and can recall the name and room number of every hotel they stayed in. What is worse, they like to show off this useless skill at cocktail parties after their second drink. Many middle-aged people worry at any sign of loss of memory

The truth is loss of memory is normal, healthy, and essential. It begins at birth and continues inexorably until death. Every day, probably every hour, awake or asleep, our crowded brains forget something they no longer need to keep—and if they didn't it is hard to see how we could go on living. How impossible life would be to the average man if he remembered every wrong or foolish thing he had done in his long Journey! Such a mountain of accumulated guilt and regret would break the stoutest back. He would have time only for remorse; none left for accomplishment. The wise man of middle age feels a quiet sense of elation at the discovery his memory isn't trying to remind you of anything quite what it used to be. What if he no longer can work and say, "It must have slipped a problem in high school algebra? What if he does keep meeting people whose faces are familiar but whose names he can no longer recall? What if he did forget his wife's 40th birthday?" The part of wisdom in middle age is to remember what makes you feel better, and if anyone tries to remind you of anything else, simply to shake your head and say, "It must have slipped my mind. It's a shame the way my memory is going."

Nursing Home Group to Meet In Appleton

Over 200 Delegates
Expected for 4-Day
State Convention

The 1962 convention of the Wisconsin Association of Nursing Homes Inc., will be held Thursday through Saturday in Appleton. Headquarters for the meeting will be the Conway Motor Hotel. About 200 delegates are expected.

The Rev. C. A. Becker, Racine, president of the association, will deliver the main address at the opening dinner at 6 p.m. Thursday. Appleton civic officials, Outagamie County leaders, nursing and public welfare personnel from the area will be among the honored guests at the dinner.

State Senator Gerald Lorge, Bear Creek, and Assemblyman Kenneth Priebe, Appleton, also will attend.

Includes Work Meetings

Friday's session includes work meetings. The morning program will feature a panel consisting of personnel of the hospital and related services division of the State Board of Health, under the direction of Vincent F. Otis, Madison, director. The luncheon speaker will be Gilbert James, professor at the University of Wisconsin Fox Valley Center, Menasha. Featured at the luncheon will be the "sweetheart crown" — the selection of the nursing home sweetheart of the Appleton area.

Workshops in the afternoon session will include discussions on construction, public relations, insurance, legal aspects and accreditation.

B. D. Dann, director of Hackley Hospital, Muskegon, Mich., will be the principal speaker at the 7 p.m. Friday banquet. "Nursing Homes — Past, Present and Future" his topic. Bob Neller of Appleton will provide the entertainment.

Elect Officers

Business sessions limited to members of the organization will be held Saturday morning and officers will be elected.

The convention will conclude with a luncheon at noon Saturday at which Appleton Health Commissioner Marvin Kagen, M.D., will speak. His topic is "How To Have a Coronary".

Melville J. Flagstad, administrator of Peabody Manor, Appleton, is general chairman of the convention. His co-chairmen are Paul Kerkhoff and Merton Ehrlicke, both of Appleton.

Milwaukee Insurance Company Liquidated

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Liquidation of the International General Insurance Corp. of Milwaukee was recommended Monday by J. E. Karsten, deputy director of the Wisconsin Department of Securities.

The recommendation came at a conference of stockholder representatives and Charles Manson, head of the State Insurance Department, who will make the final decision.

The company was licensed two months ago. Stockholders protested that a financial report showed that 21 cents of each $1 invested was spent on organization, with no policies written. The company sold 200,000 shares.

Land Speculation
Hindering State
Game Refuge Plans
Owners Know Tracts are Sought;
Holding Out for Increased Price

Post-Crescent News Service
NAVARINO — A major road-block, land speculation, is hindering purchase of lands in this area by the Wisconsin Conservation Department, as a refuge and public shooting ground, Max Morehouse, Antigo district game manager, has said.

There are already 7,500 acres in the Town of Navarino, Shawano County, owned or optioned by the department. Included are about two miles of frontage on the east shore of the Wolf River, west of Highway 187. The department is seeking to buy tracts of private land abutting state-owned lands in the Towns of Navarino, Wauchesa and Lessor in Shawano County and Matteson in Waupaca County.

Under Governor Nelson's $50 million conservation program, financed by an additional tax on cigarettes, money has been made available to the Wisconsin Conservation Commission for a greatly expanded program of land acquisition. Conservation Dept. employees are agents of the commission.

State Is Buying
It's no secret that the state is buying land. When we attempt to negotiate, almost everybody claims to have some offer from some unnamed individual or group topping ours and they refuse to sell," Morehouse said.

"The trouble is, it's hard to guess whether the owner is trying to hold out for more or if he really has a bona fide, confidential business deal."

Navarino is looked upon as having excellent potential as a wildlife area, some officials envisioning it as "a little Horicon Marsh." Morehouse characterized it as a multi-purpose area, to be managed for deer, ruffed grouse and squirrel as well as waterfowl, but conceded that waterfowl management would play a major part in the development.

"It will not be a pheasant area, however. Let's make that clear," he said in its present operation pheasants are stocked in the area chiefly for the benefit of opening weekend shooters.

But if there is local opposition to this type of development, some of it may be based on a genuine reluctance to have a "little Horicon Marsh." Said one town board member: "Who wants all that trouble around Horicon? All the people coming in, all kinds of government rules, and some places our people have hunted and trapped and fished for generations closed off as a refuge."

There is always the reluctance on the part of town officials and taxpayers to have lands removed from the tax rolls. The problem is usually compounded in areas where the state buys wildlands since they are seldom among the wealthier towns and counties and

Greenville Grange
Has Booster Night
GREENVILLE — The South Greenville Grange annual booster night program featured displays of handicraft, hobbies, sewing, flowers, fruits and vegetables.

Wallace Pingel was presented the golden shield for 50 years membership. Other guest members present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schroeder, Mrs. Elsie Julius, Milo Anderson and Lester Anderson. A tableau was presented by Mrs. Wallace Pingel, Mrs. Mark Prindle and Mrs. John Schaefer.

The community service chairman, Paul Porter, summarized the year's work. Mrs. John Crawford and youths pantomimed camp activities.

are hard hit by any reduction in an already narrow tax base.

Morehouse acknowledged that the Conservation Commission has condemnation rights and can force sale of lands to the state. He characterized this as a last resort, however, to be avoided whenever possible because of the resentment and attitude condemnation generally arouses.

New London Firm
Reports Progress
In Contract Talks

NEW LONDON — Some progress was made in contract negotiations when officials of the Upholsterers Union Local 642 and representatives of McGraw Edison met Tuesday afternoon, an official of McGraw Edison said today.

Union officials refused to comment on progress. No details of the talks were released by either side.

The union, which has more than 300 members at the plant, is asking for pay hikes and readjustment of the incentive scale. Management contends, due to present financial conditions, the company cannot grant the raises. Local 642 has been authorized to strike by its national affiliate. The workers have remained on their jobs.

No date has been set for another negotiation meeting. However, local union officials met with district and national union representatives this morning at the Elwood Hotel.

From today's perspective, Oct. 27 looms as the biggest date of the 1962 Fox River Valley Conference football season.

That's the Saturday Green Bay West's perennially powerful Wildcats travel to Sheshoyan to take on South's suddenly formidable Redmen.

The Fox Valley Sportswriters Association has tabbed West and South as the conference's "big 2" and named them virtual co-favorites for the title.

Defending co-champion West, which has taken clear or shared

West Will Give Terrors Their First Test, Says Dillon

The Terrors played well as a unit and made fewer mistakes than is usually the case in an opening game. Appleton Football Coach Ade Dillon told the Appleton Quarterback Club Tuesday night in commenting on the 33-0 win over Menasha.

Dillon, however, emphasized that the team is still "unknown," as far as its chances in the Fox River Valley Conference race is concerned. The real test will come Friday night at Green Bay when the Terrors meet West, whom Dillon describes as a "hard charging team, with good backs and good, big ends."

titles in eight of the last 10 official league races, was picked first by four of the voting writers and second by the other four. West edged always-strong Pre-montre, 3-2, in its '62 opener.

Gets 4 Firsts

South, which won its final five games last year and opened this season with a 12-7 win over a good Kenosha team, also was picked first by four writers. The Redmen took only three seconds because one "doubting" scribe picked them as low as fourth, thus finishing two points behind West in the over-all total (12 to 10).

3 Former Champions Win in U. S. Amateur

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Round opponent a rugged custer in husky Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W. Va., 10-time champion of his state.

Only three former champions remained in the field, headed by Harvie Ward of San Francisco, who won in 1955-56. The others were Dick Chapman of Oysterville, Mass., (1940) and Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md., (1960), who both won Tuesday after first round byes.

Still in contention for the hazardous task of two 18-hole matches today were Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C.; collegian Homer Blancas of Houston, Tex.; British Amateur Champion Bob Davies of Pasadena, Calif.; Dick Sikes, public links champ from Springdale, Ark.; and Dr. Ed Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz., all on the list of "possibles" before the firing began.

Joining them was a stable of dark horses off their efforts in early play. This group included Marion Methvin of Little Rock, Ark.; Jim Tom Blair of St. Louis; Jay Sigel of Philadelphia and Coe, a first round loser here this week, notified the U.S. Golf Association before the tournament started that he would be unavailable for the trip.

Preliminary List

Smith hopes to enhance his chances with a strong showing got to the quarter-finals last year. He drew as his morning third then lost in the semifinals.

Last fall, three teams tied for the Midwest Conference championship, and the campaign which gets underway this weekend shapes up another close battle for title honors.

Cornell, Grinnell and St. Olaf each posted 6-2 marks last season. Carleton was shaded out of a share of the crown with a 5-2-1 mark.

Grinnell and Carleton have a wealth of returnees which tab them as definite championship contenders. In addition, Cornell, Ripon and Lawrence are expected to be strong squads or at least improved over last season.

Monmouth, which finished in a tie for last place with Knox, has 23 lettermen back, the highest number of any team in the league. Knox also has a good nucleus and could be a first division club.

Saturday's opening games will find Cornell at Lawrence, Coe at St. Olaf, Knox at Grinnell, Monmouth at Ripon and Carleton at Beloit.

Here is a rundown on conference teams and their outlooks:

NEENAH — Can the 1962 edition of the Kaukauna Ghosts become the third KHS team in the last two decades to cop three straight conference championships? Can Neenah, which has come ever so close the last two campaigns dethrone the Kaws or will some darkhorse brush the two top contenders aside and annex the crown?

The final answer to these questions will not be known for seven weeks, but the plot will begin to unfold this weekend when the Mid-Eastern Conference launches grid play.

Kaukauna opens defense of its title against Menasha at 4 p.m. Friday at the Little Chute field. Neenah is host to New London Saturday afternoon. Friday night games send Clintonville to Kimberly and Two Rivers to Shawano.

The Ghosts copped the title with perfect records the last two seasons and attempt to duplicate the feats of the 1944, 1945 and 1946 and 1948, 1949 and 1950 units in winning tri-crowns.

Neenah's only league losses the last two seasons were 6-0 verdicts to the Kaws. The two contenders meet here on Oct. 13.

Strong Challengers

Kimberly and Shawano appear to be considerably improved and rate as strong challengers. New London, although minus such stars as Ken Hoffman and Dave Emerich, will not be a pushover.

Clintonville has a host of boys who, if anything, gained plenty of experience in last year's winless campaign. Menasha isn't as weak as the 33-0 defeat to Appleton indicates. Two Rivers, with almost half of its lineup composed of sophomores, probably will drop below last year's fourth place finish.

Conference coaches agree that this is one of the most balanced leagues in recent years. Some indication as to its strength can be found in the non-league record which showed five victories in eight starts, considerably better than in other years.

Weekend play will mark the debut of two new coaches—Harland Carl, who succeeds Marlon Batterman at Neenah and Tom Weede, successor to Emmett Boyce at Menasha.

Water Ski Club To be Organized

The organizational meeting of a Fox Valley water ski club will be held at 8 p.m. today in the Appleton Yacht Club.

The meeting will be open to anyone interested in a water ski club. The program will include a film of a national tournament, plus talks by Fred Samuels, state federation president, and Allen Bubolz (regional councilman).

Las Vegas Favors Sonny Liston, 8-5

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Challenger Sonny Liston is an 8.5 favorite to defeat champion Floyd Patterson and win the world heavyweight title in their 15-round fight in Chicago Sept. 25.

Pricemakers quoted the figures Tuesday, with Patterson listed at 5-7. The odds have not changed much in the past few days.

Braves Hand Dodgers Third Successive Defeat, Enabling Idle Giants to Gain

Milwaukee's Win Streak Grows to 5

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves have done a turn-about and gone on a victory binge to nail down fifth place, the last first division berth in the National League.

The Braves posted their fourth straight victory and seventh in the last eight outings by beating the Los Angeles Dodgers 10-5 Tuesday night before a crowd of 9,317 at County Stadium.

The triumph boosted the fifth-place Braves lead over the St. Louis to two full games. The front-running Dodgers' lead over the idle San Francisco Giants was trimmed to 3 1/2 games.

The Aaron boys—big brother Hank and rookie Tommie—sparked an 11-hit attack and Jim Constance, a 29-year-old southpaw obtained recently from Toronto of the International League, hurled fine ball in his Milwaukee debut as the Braves extended the Dodgers losing streak to three games.

His 40th Homer

Hank Aaron cracked his 40th homer, a tape-measure job of some 475 feet, had a double and scored three runs. Brother Tommie drove in three runs while contributing a double and a pair of singles. The older Aaron's homer hit the top row of the bleachers in left and bounced over for one of the longest blasts ever at County Stadium.

Bart Starr Calls His Passing 'Terrible,' Despite Gusty Wind

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — Packer Coach Vince Lombardi says the word "inconsistent" best describes the Packers' inability to put on more than one sustained drive last Sunday against Minnesota.

Twice, the Packers got within the 15-yard line and didn't score a touchdown.

Quarterback Bart Starr, pitching in a gusty wind, was off his mark but finished with seven completions in 14 attempts — a 50 per center. Starr, himself, thought his throwing was terrible, explaining "I just smelled out the park."

Yet, he threw one touchdown pass to Ron Kramer for 18 yards, and completed a slant to Max McGee to spark the line drive. This move covered 63 yards in six plays, the McGee maneuver earning 25 yards. The other five plays were rushes, including the TD, Jim Taylor 13 and Starr, when he couldn't pass, nine.

The Packers came out in good physical condition, which means they'll go into Sunday's game with the Cardinals at top speed. The lone injured player should be cleared up by then. That would be Ed Blaine, the rookie guard who was held out of action Sunday to give his leg injury more time to heal.

Fuzzy Thurston and Jerry Kramer went the distance at offensive guard. This was the first league game Kramer had played since the Viking game in Minneapolis Oct. 22, 1961.

Sunday's test vs. the Cards looms as the first "crucial" of the infant season since both teams are unbeaten. The Cardinals, underdogs at Philadelphia last Sunday, posted a 24-21 victory.

with Paul Hornung getting 16, including the TD, Jim Taylor 13 and Starr, when he couldn't pass, nine.

Packers to Go Crow Hunting In Milwaukee

John Is Cards' 'Whole Attack,' Says Cruise

GREEN BAY (AP)—The Green Bay Packers will go Crow hunting next Sunday.

The target in their Milwaukee National Football League clash with St. Louis will be John David Crow, the Cardinals' standout halfback.

"He's their whole attack," said Packer scout Wally Cruise. "He's not as much of a bull as our Jim Taylor nor as elusive as Paul Hornung, but he's as good a halfback as there is in the league."

The Packers, who launched defense of the NFL crown with a 34-7 triumph over the Minnesota Twins last Sunday, were all on the field and all in good health as drills resumed Tuesday.

The squad began the day with a look at movies of Sunday's game. Before they moved outside for the workout they heard from Coach Vince Lombardi. He didn't like the tackling and mental errors of the Viking game.

As the squad labored, Cruise was going over his scouting report, and related that the Cardinals are "a good football club and we expect to have our hands full Sunday."

St. Louis hope springs from three sources—a healthy Crow, a healthy quarterback in the person of Sam Etcheverry and a defense that was tough in beating the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21.

Crow was healthy last Sunday and scored three touchdowns against the Eagles, ran for 70 yards and caught two passes.

Etcheverry has overcome the arm trouble that limited him last year.

Reds Score 3 In 10th Inning To Tip Bucs

BY JIM HACKLEMAN

A hot team forced the cooled-off Los Angeles Dodgers to take a backward step in their march toward the National League pennant—but it isn't likely the Dodgers are too upset at things.

For one thing, despite that third straight loss they still have a 3 1/2 game lead over the San Francisco Giants. And more importantly, that crack in left-hander Johnny Podres' long-aching back apparently isn't serious.

Steals No. 93

Led by the Aaron boys, the Milwaukee Braves trounced the Dodgers 10-5 Tuesday night. Hank Aaron socked his 40th homer and a double while younger brother Tommie weighed in with a double and two singles as the Braves won their fifth straight and the seventh in their last eight starts.

Maury Wills salvaged something out of the setback with his 93rd stolen base that put the Dodger dash man just three shy

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Wood and Herb Adderley are tied for the first among interception leaders with two pass thefts each. Paul Hornum also leads in defense of his team, the Green Bay Packers, in punt return title with 68 yards in a familiar spot—the top of the two runbacks. Adderley returned the scoring list.

Official league statistics announced today showed Hornum with a 10-point lead in quest of his fourth straight NFL scoring championship. The 27-year-old versatile halfback scored 28 against the Vikings and its second on three touchdowns, and in booting, trailing only New York's Don Chandler who averaged 34.7, aged 55 yards on only two.

Green Bay quarterback Bart Starr, who was off form against Minnesota, was ranked seventh in the passing department. Starr completed seven of 14 aeriels in the 1962 opener while the NFL leader, Milt Plum of Detroit, hit on 21 of 30.

Willie Galimore, fleet halfback of the Chicago Bears, leads the National Football League in rushing after the first week of play, with 176 yards on 23 carries against the San Francisco 49ers.

Galimore picked up most of his yardage on two long touchdown romps of 37 and 77 yards in the second half. With Ruck Casares, grinding out 68 yards up the middle, the Bears' 12 punch ranked with the best in the league. Casares was eighth in rushing.

Jimmy Brown, the old dependable of the Cleveland Browns who has won the rushing title five straight years, showed he might be in there again with 134 yards in 17 attempts against the New York Giants. His average of 7.9 was a shade better than Galimore's 7.7. Tom Wilson, Brown's new playmate in the Cleveland backfield, added 76 yards, fourth best in the league. Don Perkins of Dallas was third with 93 yards.

Leads Passers

Milt Plum, who has transferred from Cleveland to Detroit, once again led the passers as he has done for two straight years. He completed 21 for 251 yards and three touchdowns against Pittsburgh in the opener. Eddie Leason, Dallas' alternate quarterback, was second in the overall passing averages, figured on a complicated formula of TDs, percentage of completions, average gain and percentage of interceptions. Sonny Jurgensen of Philadelphia gained the most yardage, 273 and Baltimore's Johnny Unitas showed the way with four TD tosses.

Fred Clarke, Dallas end, caught 10 passes from Leason and Don Meredith for 241 yards, tops in both categories.

Francis "Chesty" LeNoble, cracked games of 238 and 235 and finished with a 684 series to pace the Fox Valley League at the Recreation Alleys, Little Chute.

Other honor scores were hit by Jerry Mignon, 222, 224, 618; Joe Dolivolet, 579; Gene Vanden Heuvel, 235, 583; Harold Jansen, 236, 577; Jerry Lamers, 573; Hank Evers, 244, 585; Clarence Peeters, 233; Jack Schommer, 564; Les Uim, 560; Marty Van Gorpel, 553; Vin Jansen, 553, and Jack Lamers, 553.

Bill Goffard powered a 232 singleton and a 632 series to pace the Kimberly National Bowling League at Jerry's Lanes, Kimberly.

Other high scores were hit by Gene Peerenboom, 580; Gordon Breier, 568; Bruce Krueger, 563; Cleborne Vander Velden, 559, and Art Levknecht, 552.

Tom Reider rapped a 228 game and 573 trio while Cliff Sanderfoot hit a 575 count to pace the KRA Couples Bird League at Jerry's Lanes.

Carol DeBruin hit a 209 singleton for the lone honor count in the Friday Women's League at Bowling Bar, Kaukauna.

of the major league record set by Ty Cobb in the 154-game season of 1915.

Meanwhile, third-place Cincinnati picked up a length in the race by beating out Pittsburgh 7-4 with a three-run uprising in the 10th inning, leaving the Reds 4½ back of the Dodgers and one behind San Francisco.

Elsewhere in the NL, Houston downed the last-place New York Mets twice, 6-2 and 8-6, and the Chicago Cubs dealt St. Louis its seventh loss in a row, 4-3.

Eddie Kasko delivered Cincinnati's deciding run with a 10th-inning single against Pittsburgh and the Reds added insurance on a error and Frank Robinson's single.

The Colts helped the Mets to an unwanted big league record in their second game when Merril Ranew and rookie Dave Roberts homered. That made 188 homers against Met pitching this season for a new one-season high, breaking by two the previous mark set by Kansas City in 1956. Houston combined a four-run seventh inning and the six-hit pitching of Ken Johnson for their opening game victory.

Rookie Paul Toth checked the Cards on three hits through eight innings as the Cubs built a 4-1 lead. He yielded a single to Julian Javier, a homer to Stan Musial and a single to Bill White before giving way with two out in the ninth to Barney Schultz.

was called to active duty with the 32nd division midway through last season but is back. Other returnees include Tony Ellis, Clintonville; Jim Nirschl, Kimberly; Harry Wilson, Kaukauna; Ted Scalissi, Two Rivers; and Neil Montour, Shawano.

Each team's outlook follows: KAUKAUNA — Ten lettermen return, including Douglas Baer, Tim Verstegen and Dick Promer (formerly tackle) backs; Don Straus and John Skibba, ends; Art Dorn and Tom Berghuis, tackles; Ron Skalmusky and Ray Granger, guards; and Ron Straus, center. Buddy O'Brien is the starting quarterback.

Promer was all-conference offensive tackle and Berghuis all-league linebacker last year. The Ghosts rocked Sheboygan North, 27-7, in non-league play, holding the Raiders without a first down.

NEENAH — Ex-Wisconsin star Carl has lettermen at every position except center and there Jim Thomas, 195-pound junior transfer from California has taken over. Lettermen include Dan Zehner, Ewald Wollmerman, Harold Thomas and Howard Thomas, ends; Bob Bletzing, Bill Dixon (275 pounds) and Dave Missall, tackles; Vern Graham and Dentackles; Mike Miller and Mike Noverspike, guards; George Demerath, guards; Dick Kuehl, Massey, quarterback, Bob Kl #1; quarterback; Dave Neubauer, per, Rocky Gmeiner and Myron Bob Walker, Jim Weinke, Fran Goezt and Joe Began, halfbacks; and Bill Sharpe, fullback.

Neubauer, Began, Walker, Weinke and Hollis Bliss, a junior, who has taken over the fullback spot, all are dashmen. Began will miss the first game or two because of a leg injury. Zehner made the all-conference team as a defensive end last year. The Rockets topped Fond du Lac, 28-7, in their inaugural.

KIMBERLY — The Papermakers, with 10 lettermen available, have excellent speed in their best backfield speed in recent years. Veterans include ends Lee Levknecht and Jerry Wyngaard, tackles Dave Mitchell, Mike Roemer and Dennis Seegers; guards Ed Van Nuland and Dick Schellhut; center Wes VanderVelden; halfback Dennis Kroner and halfback Hal Wentzel.

Joe Kaufman, guard, John Hengle, guard and Terry Subert, halfback, are promising sophomores while Tom Bogenschutz, transfer from Random Lake, holds down a starting halfback. The Papermakers upended Little Chute St. John, 18-6, in their non-league fray.

NEW LONDON — Dehlinger and Larry Graves, his assistant, who took over as head coach at the former's departure last fall, have seven veterans. They are tackle Joe Prohaska, a regular last year, and Gary Glick, center; Jim McDaniel, tackle; Jim Lieby, guard; Dave Walmer, fullback; Steve Hoier, halfback, and Phil Wilson, end.

The remainder of the lineup includes Terry Dorschner or Mike Stern, halfback; John Moriarity, quarterback; Leroy Young, guard; Bill O'Brien, tackle; and Loren Danke, end. The Bulldogs stopped Mosinee, 14-7, in their non-loop fray.

TWO RIVERS — From the Cool City comes word that 40 of the squad of 80 varsity candidates are sophomores. Scalissi's starting unit in the 28-0 loss to Manitowoc consisted of five sophomores, four juniors and two seniors.

Eight lettermen are available. Including Lee Spiering, center, last year but now a tackle, John Webster, Charlie Barman, Dick Peterson and Gary Lintereur, linemen; and Dave Altman, speedy Jim Brull, Craig Smogleski and Mike Czechanski, backs. Altman has inherited the quarterback job from all-conference Tom Brigham.

SHAWANO — Fumbles hurt the Indians in their 20-6 loss to Clintonville last weekend. Sparked by quarterback Tom Wagner, the Indians made 120 yards passing. (Montour has 17 lettermen available, many of whom earned their spurs as sophomores last autumn. Two others, guards Greg Groleau and Tom Bartels, both starters last year, are out with knee ailments. Veterans include Bill Brennan, Tom Grover, Jerry Gast, Don Easterling, Dennis Tomchek, David Krause, Tony Krysiak, Bob Nela, Dennis Lalin and Ken Munson, linemen; and Dick Sperberg, Wagner, Gary Laehn, Dennis Lindquist, Jim Wolfe, Dave Arnold and Jim Judd, backs. Krysiak and Grover have been switched to halfback and Lindquist, to center. Easterling was an all-league offensive end last fall.

MENASHA — Weede, who compiled outstanding records at three Michigan schools, has a dozen veterans plus a group of willing sophomores. Lettermen include Mark Pawlowski and John Ashenbrenner, ends; Arnie Enz, Tom Thompson and Keith Larsen, tackles; Mike Miller and Mike Noverspike, guards; George Demerath, guards; Dick Kuehl, Massey, quarterback, Bob Kl #1; quarterback; Dave Neubauer, per, Rocky Gmeiner and Myron Bob Walker, Jim Weinke, Fran Goezt and Joe Began, halfbacks; and Bill Sharpe, fullback.

Fight Last Night

By The Associated Press
READING, Pa. (AP) — A 13-year-old boy was killed last night when he was struck by a car. The boy was walking across a street when he was hit by a car driven by a 19-year-old man. The driver was charged with manslaughter.

14, on the basis of 1 point for first, 2 for second, etc.).

The team considered most capable of spoiling Oct. 27 as the date of the potential title game is Oshkosh. The defending co-champion Indians, who ruined West's bid for a perfect season last year, are rated third.

Oshkosh plays host to South Friday night in the first weekend's spotlight game and could scramble the pre-season ratings fast.

Green Bay East, which should be on the upswing, has been picked to round out the first division.

Appleton has been selected as the probable top team in the second division — by a matter of a few points over Manitowoc. Fond du Lac has been picked for seventh, with Sheboygan North a unanimous choice for last.

In other Friday openers, it will be AHS at West and Manitowoc at Fond du Lac. Saturday afternoon, East invades North.

Outlooks, by teams.

WEST — The seven returning lettermen at Coach John Biolo's disposal are halfbacks Bill Haberman and Bill West, fullback Curt Saari, center Dick Blazer, tackles Rick Zoll and Bob Zoll and guard Denny Dwyen (who is out with a wrist injury). Supplementing the holdovers are members of the unbeaten 1961 junior varsity team. West and Haberman are strong runners, and the Wildcat line figures to be tough. Lack of speed is reputed to be the only discernible weakness.

SOUTH — Coach Andy Anderson has an 11-letterman nucleus. Backs Gary Kampman, Tony Baranousky, Bill Mueller and Danny Burkle; and linemen Tony Kabord, John Cnealis, Joe Eirch, John Ruppenthal, Bob Krolnik, Dennis Wagner and Mark Simon. QB Qampman is a good ball-handler and passer. Principal deficiency appears to be lack of OSHKOSH — The hard core of the Harold Schumacher-coached team consists of lettermen Roger Beck, John Ziebell, Larry Kopitz, Wayne Alexander, Brad Pippa Scott is the territory's newspaper editor. Guest stars in the story are Hugh O'Brien, as a stranger obviously seeking revenge; Colleen Dewhurst, as the love-starved schoolma'am whose testimony led to a hanging, and John Larch, as the suspicious sheriff. 6:30-7:30 Channel 11 — Wagon Train begins a new seasonal trek on a different prairie (ABC). Basically, it's the old crew encountering the old problems. This week, it's Comancheros, the evil renegades of the plains.

6:30-7:30 Channel 2 — CBS Reports has been switched to this earlier time, which will let the younger audience have a chance to see some of the fine documentaries this series produces. Tonight's is even aimed, somewhat, at the younger viewer. "The Teen-Age Smoker" is more than its title implies. It is basically a full-blown presentation of both sides in the tobacco-cancer argument.

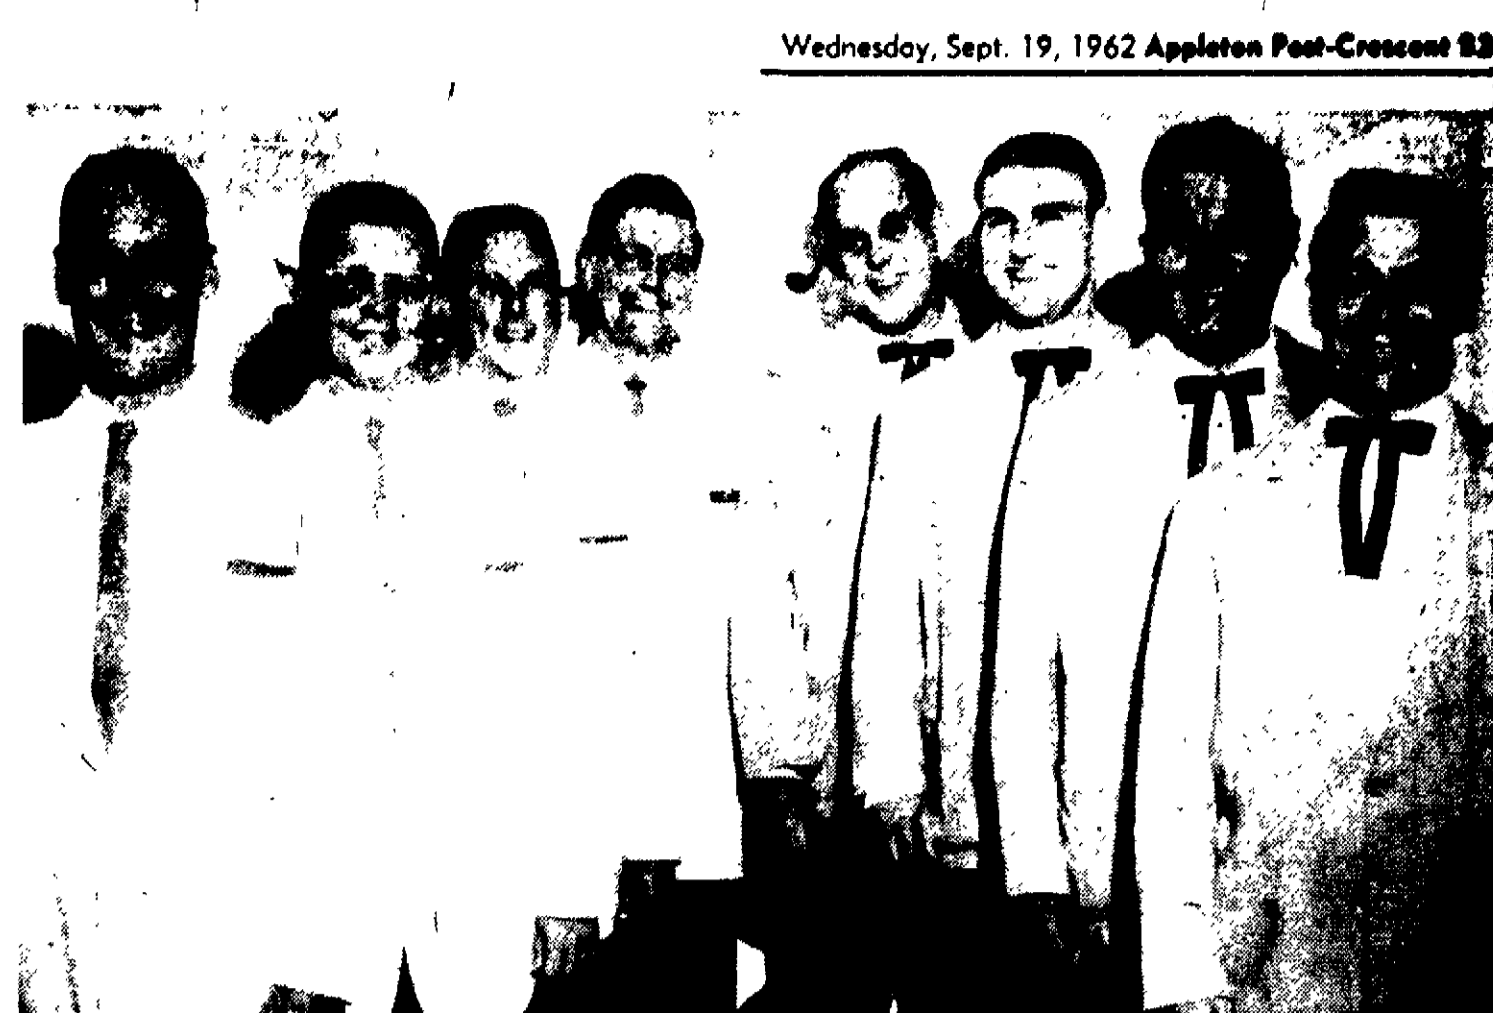

7:30-8:30 (Channel) 2 — Checkmate's repeat, a pilot for a potential series, has Ed Nelson playing a recording company executive with problems. The junior member (Paul Carr) of a singing team causes most of these. Buddy Ebsen plays his older partner.

8-9 Channel 4-5 — "Murder in Gratitude," repeated on the Kraft Mystery Theater, is a solid mystery—the killer is a complete and perhaps, aggravating surprise. It is set on a railroad, with the victim a wealthy Englishman just married to a French girl from the village he helped rebuild because the townspeople had saved his life in the war.

9-10 Channel 11 — Naked City chooses to begin its new season with a pretentious and enigmatic story of a Greenwich Village murder. The victim is Burgess Meredith, for the 987th time playing a drunken poet. The killer is Herschel Bernardi, for the 345th time playing a quietly explosive type.

9-10 Channel 2 — The Judy Garland Show is a repeat of a special from last winter. It's a simple, almost spartan, production, with out dancers or chorus, but with Judy, Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin singing their hearts out.

10:20-12 Channel 4-5 — Tonight's guests are Dean Jones, Annette, Rod Steiger, Claire Bloom, Duke Ellington, Lee Strasberg, Frankie Damone and George Alexander. (Color)

90-Minute Series Starts On TV Today

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-8 Channel 4-5—NBC gallops in with its much-heralded 90-minute Western, The Virginian, tonight. As you might expect, this is big, beautiful (the color is magnificent) and gaudy. With 90 minutes to play with, the program can spend more time on character development than most Westerns. It can also devote some time to such things as a barn dance (with out-of-place Hollywood choreography) and romance. But the added time also means that the story moves more slowly. The setting for The Virginian is, surprisingly, Wyoming, where the title character (James Drury) is foreman for Lee J. Cobb, who is pretty much wasted in this first show. Gary Clarke and Doug McClure are ranch hands. Roberta Beek, John Ziebell, Larry Kopitz, Wayne Alexander, Brad Pippa Scott is the territory's newspaper editor. Guest stars in the story are Hugh O'Brien, as a stranger obviously seeking revenge; Colleen Dewhurst, as the love-starved schoolma'am whose testimony led to a hanging, and John Larch, as the suspicious sheriff. Wedding of Civil War Era At Wade House

Historical Program In Costume Set for 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday

GREENBUSH — A Civil War wedding in full costume will be staged at Old Wade House Sunday, Mrs. Fay Dooley, curator of the historic site announced this week. The enactment of the ceremony will take place for each group of visitors between 2 and 4 p.m. in the Wade House ballroom.

The bride, played by Miss Sharon Donath, Crystal Lake, a guide at the site, will wear a wedding gown in a redingote style in white slipper satin and satin brocade with a three-foot train and an underskirt of slipper satin with a knife pleated flounce. Cut steel beads cover each flower in the brocade pattern. The gown, donated to Old Wade House by Mrs. William Chester, Milwaukee, was worn by a bride of the period.

The groom, played by Anthony Liebe, Oshkosh State College student, will wear an authentic Civil War uniform, a part of the collection of military uniforms owned by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Miss Donath and Mr. Liebe are an appropriate couple to model the costumes as they recently announced their engagement.

Miss Gail Ford, Greenbush, 15, Wade House guide, will enact the bridesmaid role, dressed in a wedding gown worn in the late 1850 by a tiny bride who died in the first year of her marriage. Gary Knowles, Greenbush, who frequently takes part in Wade House special events, will serve as best man.

The Rev. James Cosner of Greenbush Methodist Church will officiate at the mock ceremony. The ceremony will be reminiscent of a wedding that took place at Wade House during the Civil War period between Althea Standard, a pretty, young schoolteacher and Hollis Wade, youngest son of the founder of Wade House stagecoach inn.

Light refreshments will be served to visitors as a sort of wedding reception Sunday afternoon.

Old Wade House is one of the five historic sites operated by The State Historical Society of Wisconsin, open to visitors until the end of October. It is located on State Highway 23 at Greenbush, midway between Fond du Lac and Sheboygan.

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

WILL PLenty OF MONEY

GET YOU IN THE 'SOCIAL SWIM'?

YES ☐ NO ☐

MIZZOU! WHERE ARE YOU?

No, not any more than a good set of golf clubs will enable you to compete in a championship match. Money, and plenty of it, may be necessary. But unless you are also acceptable to the group you wish to join, it will not be enough. To really get "in," you have to have the qualities they want. It is often hard to find out what these are because they usually do not know themselves. You will be happier if you stay among the people you know, and who are willing to accept you.

More than 90 per cent regularly get a daily newspaper, and well over 80 per cent buy or subscribe to magazines. In today's world, reading is important for young people and adults alike. The way a child feels about work can affect his future.

True — False —

True — A child who feels that he never can satisfy his parents' regardless of how hard he tries, may get the idea that it doesn't do any good to make an effort in anything. He slides out of all he can, and sometimes grows up to either avoid work or to lack the confidence that he can do anything of value.

True — A recent nation-wide survey of teen-agers' reading habits finds that the overwhelming majority of today's junior and senior high school students come from something well that provides a home where reading is a part of base for his confidence as a person. Ninety-two per cent of the teen-agers' families have books of their own in their homes.

Sick U. S. Dollar Jokes Will End

BY SYLVIA PORTER

There will be no "sick, sick, sick" jokes about the U. S. dollar in the corridors and meeting halls of Washington's Sheraton Park Hotel today as the free world's financial leaders gather to open the 1962 meetings of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

For the U. S. dollar is hardly as sick as is claimed by malicious critics of our country, uninformed newspaper commentators and ruthless currency speculators — and the central bankers of the West know it. In fact, even as the speculators have been trying to stage a last-minute bear raid on our currency, "the battle of the dollar," in the words of the respected financial trade paper, "The Weekly Bond Buyer," is, "to all practical account, won."

We are not going to stoop to notice the dollar-baiting talk in countries which are free and prosperous today only because we have given and loaned them our dollars so generously.

We're Not to be Pushed We are not going to be pushed by incredibly shortsighted, selfish foreigners into acts of desperation that would undermine the entire free world and hand the Soviet Union an enormous victory. Again to quote "The Bond Buyer," it is ludicrous "That so great a currency as the dollar is or can be impeded by other relatively pip-squeak currencies, some of which were flat on their back a dozen years ago and would still be there if the dollar had not rescued them."

Yes, we are still running a deficit in our balance of payments, spending more abroad than we're taking in from other countries, thereby allowing our foreign creditors to continue to build up claims against our dollar which they can and do withdraw in part in the form of gold. We are losing gold, we will lose more, and our gold reserve, already at a 23-year low of $16 billion, will be still lower before the year's end.

But the dollar is being protected by a series of unprecipitated measures and the protection will go on until no longer necessary. The cooperation among the free world's financiers to defend the dollar and conserve the U. S. gold reserved in recent months has been nothing short of magnificent. The way the International Monetary Fund came to the rescue of the pound sterling a year ago and is now helping to develop dollar stabilizing techniques also is nothing short of magnificent.

Dollar is Economy Pivot The U. S. dollar is the pivot of the free world's currencies and economies — and one reason is that no other currency could do the job, no other nation except us puts absolutely no controls over currency movements; you can take any amount of dollars you have wherever you wish. No other nation except us says to any foreign borrower that he may enter our markets and borrow as much as our investors are willing to lend at a cost set by a free market. No other nation except us runs a balance of payments deficit just because we spend so much for the free world's military defense and economic welfare that this spending more than wipes out our huge surplus of exports over imports.

The sick, sick, sick jokes began when the financial leaders met in New Delhi for their 1958 meeting. The big story that year was that a Zurich banker has offered to bet Federal Reserve Board chairman Martin a bottle of champagne that the dollar would be devalued. Martin had refused to take the bet — and that meant devaluation was imminent.

They were revived when the financiers met in Washington in 1959. The big jokes that year were that we were the world's poorest developed nation and had the world's "fifth strongest currency."

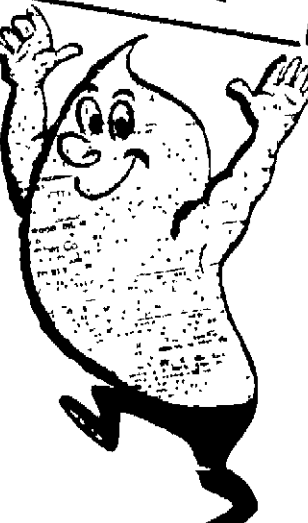

They reached sickening crescendo in Vienna last year when our financial delegates had to spend endless hours explaining to the European Financiers that because a small-town U. S. banker on a European vacation said the dollar was going to be devalued didn't mean he knew anything about the subject and the same went for some of our newspaper reporters.

This year the mood is different. It's serious, attentive, cooperative for the dollar, even if the amateur rumor mongers haven't caught up with the news yet.

Some day when the timing is right we will take major new steps to strengthen the currency system of the free world. But we'll take the steps when we are ready — not when the leaders in pip-squeak countries shrilly tell us to.

Rates Set for Gas Companies

Fox Cities Probably Won't be Affected By U. S. Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — Earnings rates for two wholesale natural gas distributors figuring in the supply for Wisconsin and other states were set Monday by the Federal Power Commission.

The commission ruled that Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. of Detroit should be allowed a 6.5 per cent return in three pending natural gas rate increase cases. A return of six per cent should be allowed the American Louisiana Pipe Line Co., the commission ruled.

American Louisiana is an affiliate of Michigan-Wisconsin and both are subsidiaries of the American Natural Gas Co. In addition to Wisconsin, they serve utility customers in Missouri, Iowa, Illinois and Michigan.

The combined increases proposed by the firms would total more than $12 million a year—about $11.3 million by Michigan-Wisconsin and about $900,000 by American Louisiana.

Wisconsin-Michigan Power Co., which supplies natural gas to much of the Fox Cities area, purchases its supply of gas from the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co.

"It is unlikely that this will have any effect on Wisconsin Michigan customers," a company spokesman said today.

"We have absorbed such increases in the past through increased sales of gas. But we will have to wait and see what effect it will have on the price we pay for gas. We have no intention of asking any change in gas rates at this time," he concluded.

Young Business Man:

Post-Crescent carrier Russell Boers, 4500 Meade St., obviously has the sound belief that a business has to grow to prosper since the first of the year he has added 17 new customers to his already extensive route.

Boers' route is also extensive in area. It includes subscribers in the Apple Creek territory necessitating 13 miles travel daily for the carrier. This, Russell covers with the aid of a motor scooter purchased from his earnings.

A sophomore at Appleton Senior High School this year, Russell is also active in youth organizations at Zion Lutheran Church was president of the Junior Lutheran League the past year and was a selectee for attendance at the summer Leadership Training Camp Baseball track and swimming are his favorite sports and he also enjoys hunting, reading, playing the piano, building models and collecting foreign and domestic coins.

Boers has his future definitely planned. He wants to enter the Air Force and later become a government hunter. His earnings are being channeled into a savings account for college for buying books, and for records for his Hi-Fi.

The energetic lad has boosted his savings in a livestock venture in which he purchased a calf for $50, raised it for two years, then sold it for the satisfactory price of $200.

Dancing feet tripped through the weekend activities of the Communication Workers of America sponsored a dinner-dance Saturday and the Hashers Square Dance Club held a challenge dance Sunday evening.

The CWA danced under the stars that decorated the Silver Dome Ballroom at Greenville. The theme of their annual dinner-dance was "Fall Fantasy".

Al Sova, Milwaukee, called for the Hashers square dance Sunday evening at the Darboy Club, Darboy. Mr. and Mrs. Florian Reck, Appleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wolff, Neenah, had charge of the arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Frank pause during a dance set to chat with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart, New London, at the Communication Workers of America's annual dinner-dance Saturday evening at the Silver Dome Ballroom, Greenville. "Fall Fantasy" was chosen as the theme of the dance.

Kaukauna Setting for Wedding

KAUKAUNA — The wedding of Miss Donna J. Biese and Lance R. Goetzman took place at 11 a.m. Sept. 8 at Holy Cross Catholic Church. The Rev. Andrew Quella officiated at the double ring nuptial rite which united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Biese, 219 Brothers St., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Goetzman, 408 E. Eighth St.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Eugene Biese. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul Biese, Appleton, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Hope Goetzman, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Susan West. Lee LaRock served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsman's duties were fulfilled by Arthur Borg Jr. and Daniel Biese, a brother of the bride. John Van Delft and Paul Biese, Appleton, acted as ring bearers.

A wedding dinner was served at the Elks Club. A reception was held there from 3 to 7:30 p.m.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin and Canada, the couple will live at 214 E. Eighth St.

The newlyweds are graduates of Kaukauna High School. Mrs. Goetzman is employed at the Bank of Kaukauna. Her husband is a senior at St. Norbert College, De Pere.

Educational Goals Change, BPW Told

Today's educational instruction faces a tremendous challenge in giving a child emotional stability, physical strength and pliability and flexibility in the face of change. William Spears, Assistant Superintendent of Schools in charge of instruction, told members of the Appleton Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening. Children will also need "frustrator resistors," to take the many forthcoming changes in their stride, he said.

Mr. Spears spoke on "Modern Trends in the Field of Instruction" at the dinner meeting at the Conway Hotel. He was introduced by Miss Lois Smith, chairman of civic participation.

He noted that since the Russians put up their Sputnik, education has found more vocal critics. He believes that this criticism is good for education, for it tends to make those in responsible positions more objective, and forces them to take a look at themselves. Education, he noted is one of Appleton's largest businesses, with a budget of $4 million. Everyone should be interested in how it is carried out.

Many people, the speaker observed, are concerned about where education is going. Something can be learned, however, by studying the growth since the 1900s. At that time schools were subject-centered, with achievement rated on how well a student mastered subject matter. During the 1920s and 30s, schools were child-centered. Mr. Spears noted that the ideal theory is a bit like love and marriage. There should be both. A school program must have a structure in which the child can struggle and succeed. Without successes, he will cease to try.

Today, in Appleton, 900 of every 1000 who begin first grade will graduate from high school. As all schools must know more about how to help all these students, Mr. Spears stated.

Must Move With Times

In 1900 it was possible to plan ahead, the speaker said. Things are now changing so rapidly that we cannot be sure what will be right for tomorrow. Much of the vocational training designed to fit young people for jobs has become obsolete. Machines have taken over the work. He said that perhaps 50 to 75 per cent of the jobs to be filled 10 years from now don't exist today. For this essential components of today's education.

reason stability and flexibility are. Along with these are the standard things which will continue. These include giving the student a sense of responsibility, a desire for truth and honesty, the ability to work with others, and some knowledge of how to live with more leisure time.

the youngsters, with IQs varying from 25 to 175, are in school, the program must serve all. Those with the lowest learning capacity are now in Plamann School. Those with an IQ of 50 to 80 are educable, which means they are capable of learning and becoming self-supporting good citizens. Above this category is the great middle group, with a range from 80 to 130. These are the real stable citizens, by a Harvard study group to contain those who will make the greatest scientific contributions. Also in the schools are those above 130, with their tremendous potential and need for challenge. All of these must be educated.

In addition, there are those who have physical handicaps and require orthopedic care, those with auditory handicaps, and those with emotional problems. The

Outagamie Deanery Lists New Officers

Mrs. Edwin Vanevenhoven, Kaukauna, was elected vice director for Kaukauna of the Outagamie Deanery of the Green Bay Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at the recent board meeting at Holy Angels Catholic Church, Darboy.

Miss Bernadette Mueller, Appleton, was elected to the legislation committee. Miss Theresa Broeren, Appleton, public relations, and Mrs. Robert Feldkamp, Kaukauna, libraries and literature.

Plans were made for the annual fall meeting Oct. 18 at St. John High School, Little Chute. Bishop Stanislaus V. Bona, Green Bay, Judge Gustave J. Keller, Appleton, and the Rev. Marcellus Cabo, O.F.M., St. Anthony Catholic Church, Neopit, will be guest speakers at the Oct. 2 fall institute of the council at Lourdes High School, Oshkosh. Reservations may be made until Friday with Mrs. Willard Betters, Kimberly.

Marriage Promises Exchanged

Aging Arms

Mature figures have a trouble scrubbing with a well-lathered spot in common — the upper arm. At least once daily, massage in the arm. The muscles in the area are prone to sag, and then the skin becomes lax from the loss of elasticity. The problem is usually blamed on the aging process, but it is not the sole factor. Insufficient exercise and skin care contribute in no small way, as do large fluctuations in weight.

Consequently, any woman past 40 would be wise to set her sights on normal weight. Not just for the looks of the arms, of course, but also for her general well-being. In addition she should give her arms some special attention. The following steps are known for their power in both preventing and relieving flabbiness.

Cabaret Club Party Plans Told

KAUKAUNA — The Cabaret Club will open the new season Saturday with a semi-formal "Harvest Hop" at Van Abel's, Hollantown. A 5:30 p.m. cocktail hour will precede the 7:30 p.m. dinner. Dancing will be until 1 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Black and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ball are co-chairmen assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vanden Heubel, Mr. and Mrs. John Vandenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordana and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Vanevenhoven.

Scouts Arrange Sale of Uniforms

KAUKAUNA — A Girl Scout uniform sale will be conducted from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Saturday at the Methodist Church Hall. Persons having a uniform or portion of a uniform to sell are to place a tag showing name, size, address and price on the uniform. Southside residents can deliver items to Mrs. William Knapp while Mrs. Elmer Dorr will collect northside items for delivery to the church.

Your Problems

Wife Outranks Secretary In Ann's Organization Table

BY ANN LANDER

DEAR ANN LANDERS I drive my husband to work every morning because I like to have the car during the day. Ludvig doesn't enjoy driving so I handle the wheel. When we see someone from his office waiting for a bus we always stop. The passenger gets in Ann Landers the back.

Yesterday Ludvig saw the boss' secretary waiting for a bus. He a girl who is 13 years old. I don't looks up to her because she's know whether my problem is my close to the brass. He asked me 10-year-old sister, or my mother to stop, which I promptly did. Mother says Anita is too young. Then he said, "I'll drive, dear, to accept any responsibility so I you hop in back so Miss Swan have to do the dishes, make both son can sit up here in front" our beds and pick up after her. I was plenty burned up about If Anita gets into mischief it's this but I controlled my temper my fault because I am older and until Ludvig got home that eve- should keep an eye on her ning. Then I let him have it. He I don't get any allowance be says a wife should know her cause Anita is too young to han-place and when she doesn't a die money and my mother doesn't husband ought to remind her. In want to show any favoritism. We his opinion I should have offered both have to go to bed at the to sit in the back without being same time because Mother says told. What about this? — De- Anita will feel inferior if I get special privileges.

Dear Demoted: Perhaps my table of organization isn't what it should be, but it seems to me that a wife outranks the boss' secretary.

Remind Ludvig that a woman's place is beside her husband — for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health, till death does them part! (That ought to settle his hash.)

DEAR ANN LANDESS I am a girl who is 13 years old. I don't looks up to her because she's know whether my problem is my close to the brass. He asked me 10-year-old sister, or my mother to stop, which I promptly did. Mother says Anita is too young. Then he said, "I'll drive, dear, to accept any responsibility so I you hop in back so Miss Swan have to do the dishes, make both son can sit up here in front" our beds and pick up after her. Then I let him have it. He I don't get any allowance be says a wife should know her cause Anita is too young to han-

I tried to talk this problem over with my father but he says he's got all he can do to support the family and he isn't going to interfere with my mother's job of raising the kids.

Please say something. — Unlucky 13

Dear Unlucky 13: Your mother is trying to be fair to both you and your sister, and as a result she isn't being fair to either of you.

Anita should be making her own bed, picking up after herself and helping you with the dishes. She should also be getting an allowance. As the older sister you should have heavier responsibilities and more privileges than a 10-year-old. Your bedtime should be later and your allowance larger. Your Mother could use some help from Dad. Unfortunately, like too many fathers he feels that after he pays the bills his job is done.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems.

Today's Etiquette

WRONG STEER

I have a friend who loves to give parties and who entertains beautifully. I am planning to give a tea and shower for a bride-to-be and since I have never done this before, I went to my friend for advice. This is what she suggested and I am wondering, if it isn't too much for a tea: chicken salad in a bed of lettuce, sandwiches with various fillings, rolls, relishes, salted nuts, ice cream molds, coffee and tea.

Louise Davis Answers:

No wonder you are wondering! Such a menu would be appropriate for a luncheon but not for a tea. Surely your friend must have misunderstood. Imagine eating such hearty refreshments in the late afternoon, then going home to prepare and eat a dinner for yourself and family. A tea party consists of light refreshments such as tea, dainty sandwiches, little frosted cakes, (petits fours). No salad, no dessert. A popular time for a tea is from 4 until 6 o'clock.

The Classic Flannel Shift Dress continues to capture the young-at-hearts of all ages with its relaxed comfort. This fall's version is amply pocketed with a self-tie sash. The placket-front buttons right up to the jewel collar. The just-below-the-elbow sleeves and jewel neckline invite the use of bangle bracelets and chain necklaces. A perfect base for many guises, this dress hangs free, slightly sash-controlled or firmly belted depending on the whim of the wearer.

Sportswear Fashions are All Wrapped up in the knee-tickler this year. It's the cover up that looks neat on a quick trip downtown or for campus activities. The newest version, a short wrap-around skirt is shown above. The adjustable waistband features mountaineer button detail in the front. The patch pockets flare slightly at the hip. Picking up the crisp fall shades to coordinate with the skirt is a floral and leaf print blouse with roll sleeves.

The Ailing House

Tile Can be Laid Over Flooring

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: Would I have to tear up the present flooring, which is still cemented down tightly, in order to lay tile on the kitchen floor?

A: If the present flooring is smooth and adhering tightly all over, tile can usually be put directly on top. The floor surface must be absolutely clean and free of any trace of wax, grease, grime, etc., before installing the tile. Detailed installation instructions are usually available at the tile dealer or from the tile manufacturer; follow manufacturer's instructions carefully.

Paint Varnished Floor

Q: In error, some white paint sprayed thinly coated portions of a varnished hardwood floor. Is it possible to remove the paint without damaging the varnish finish of the floor?

A: Sometimes liquid floor wax (not water or the self-polishing type) will remove paint spray without damage to a polished finish, if you get at it quickly enough. Or try exceedingly careful rubbing with fine steel wool and turpentine.

Refinishing Old Chest

Q: What is a good, sure method of refinishing an old chest of drawers? I do not know what kind of wood; it appears to be several. I would like to finish it with a reddish cherry stain. The brass pulls have discolored with age. How can I brighten them?

A: Any finish on the chest must be removed down to bare wood (use paint remover for varnish; denatured alcohol for shellac). The easiest method would be to paint the chest the desired color with a good quality enamel; this will give a uniform appearance to the various woods with the least work. If you wish to use a wood stain, apply to prepared wood bleach to darker areas, following label directions carefully, so that all surfaces are the same shade; then apply a wood stain in the desired color, following label directions carefully.

A coat of pure, fresh, white shellac thinned half and half with denatured alcohol will protect the wood surface. Before applying a business meeting, cards any finish or coating to the bare wood be played. The next meeting wood, be sure it is satin smooth, clean and free of any dust. YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infect 1 out of every 8 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W Tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Discusses Canopy Bed

A canopy bed can look especially handsome between windows — the fact that the bed must head- ing sheer curtains and wall panel end in this location can improve its effect rather than spoil it, as Mrs. G. S. is afraid it might.

The situation-saver is unified design for the whole wall, to make it look as if choice, not necessity, placed the bed in this position.

Choose a single fabric for the bed and over-curtains, Mrs. S., and the most effective kind will be patterned. Start the curtains above bed top level with a soft valance all the way across the wall. The valance repeats the canopy ruffle and ties the entire

Mrs. L. R. B.: "We're about to move from a house to an apartment and plan to get rid of our dining furniture because it would crowd our new dining room. I'd like to use the gray-green wrought iron chairs and glass-topped table we have on an enclosed porch now for the dining room, but what kind of small buffet and sideboard should I buy? What type of wallpaper is suitable for the furniture but not too summery?"

The room needn't be too different from what it would be with all wood furniture. The buffet and sideboard shouldn't be formal and will be best in a finish that has a grayish tinge rather than a clear finish that tends toward red tones, but otherwise you have quite a choice of simple styles. You might also consider painted finishes, perhaps antique white. Wallpaper could have a wide-spaced geometric patterning, softly blended colors that don't shape definite pattern or a lightly textured effect — the paper needn't be leafy or floral although a pattern with leaves or flowers could be found that doesn't create a typical summery look. Change the chair seat cover if they suggest outdoors more than you'd like them to.

Mrs. F. B.: "The heavy draperies we've always had in my son's room have never let in enough light. Now that they must be changed, I'm wondering if there isn't something lighter weight that would be appropriate for a high school-age boy's room. What do you suggest?"

A change of curtain style will probably be more helpful than a change of curtain fabric. All the light can come in if you hang the new curtains on a wider rod so they can be pushed back to uncover the glass completely. However, rough textured semi-sheers are appropriate and filter light through.

Mrs. Ailee Boardman, a Nurse and the only person allowed to use the ghost station at Great Longstone, England, awaits her train to stop as it enters the deserted station. A ruling by Britain's nationalized railways, which closed the station as an economy measure, said that trains were to stop for the benefit of picking up Mrs. Boardman as a passenger and no one else. "This is a special concession to a valuable nurse," a railway spokesman said. (AP Wirephoto)

Appearance of Women Arouses Ire of Visitor

BY ISABEL DU BOIS
Chicago Daily News Service
NEW YORK — "Too many American women go to the supermarket in Bermuda shorts that are a little too small and with hair rollers that are a mite too large." That's the opinion of Mrs. Birte Strandgaard, consumers representative for Iram, a Danish chain store. "When I visited America 10 years ago," she told representatives at the 5th international food congress here, "The way American housewives dressed impressed me. But today numerous young and old, fat and thin home-makers shop for groceries in shorts. It's inconceivable when the world are readily available to them. How can they bear to dress as they do?" Some 2,000 delegates from 32 countries are at the congress, which is billed as "the greatest food show in the world." It's being held in the United States for the first time this year. Mrs. Strandgaard was more favorably impressed by other aspects of our food industry. She likes the way our retailers treat vegetables and produce. She likes the variety of milk products. She likes the recipes and information on our food packages. She's not sure about our abundance of partially prepared "convenience" foods, and warns that food manufacturers should not "be too smart with food."

Strong Yet Safe - Gives Hours of Continuous Relief from Minor ARTHRITIS PAINS

Reduces swelling and inflammation so it's easier to move afflicted limbs again

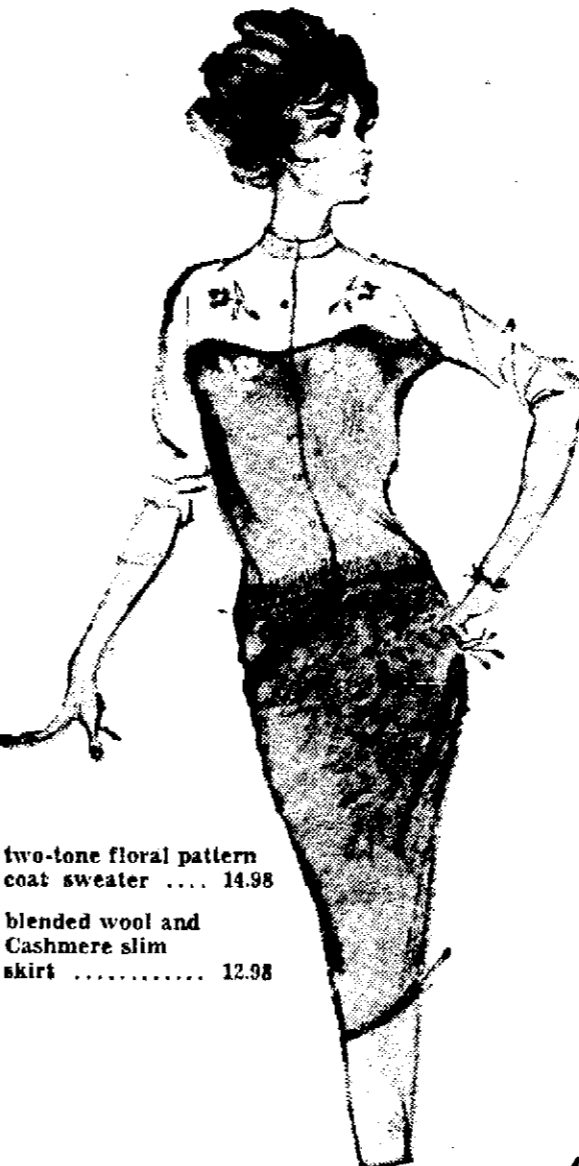

No cure as yet has been found for arthritis. But medical research has established that the strong yet safe medication in Anacin® gives hours of relief from arthritis' minor pains—even such chronic pain arising from deep in joints. It has also been found Anacin has an anti-inflammatory action that helps reduce swelling and inflammation—a basic cause of arthritis suffering. In minutes—pain is relieved so it's easier to move around and this helps keep joints from "locking" or "stiffening."

Anacin Tablets are so effective because they contain strong yet safe medication. Remember, aspirin or buffered aspirin has only one pain reliever. But Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, a combination of three medically proven ingredients. And Anacin does not upset the stomach. Take as directed.

New Officers Announced for Algoma Firm

Badger Northland
Names Ralph Perry
To Head Acquisition

Management personnel for the Algoma Foundry and Machine Co. have been announced by Badger Northland Kaukauna. Badger Northland has acquired the Algoma firm.

Ralph Perry, Algoma, has been named vice president and general manager for the Algoma manufacturing concern.

Perry has been a member of the Algoma firm since 1948 when he began in a plant training program. In 1951 he was promoted to assistant manager of the plant operations. He was elected to the old board of directors in 1953 and was made vice president of that firm in 1955. Perry became president of the Algoma manufacturing concern in 1957.

Others Named

Others elected to the new Algoma board of directors are Vincent Rohlf, president of Badger Northland; Karl Kuehn, executive vice president and assistant to the president for Badger Northland; Roger Rohlf, vice president and general manager of the Kaukauna firm; Eugene Haen, vice president in charge of research and development for Badger Northland; Neil McArthur, Kaukauna attorney and corporation lawyer for Badger, and John Galvin, Badger Northland's controller.

In addition to Perry's appointment as vice president, Karl Kuehn, Kaukauna, will serve as president of the Algoma Foundry and Machine Co. and John Galvin, Appleton, would be secretary and treasurer for the company.

Badger - Algoma - spokesman that Badger was eager to see the Karl Kuehn indicated that the Algoma operations expand and products of the Algoma Machine prosper and that Badger Northland and Foundry Co. will help company land would lend aid and assistance to the cycle of automatic it could to Algoma.

Midwest Colleges Give Foreign Studies Report

President of Group Discusses Two Pilot Programs With Faculty Delegates

A report on two pilot programs for foreign study was given recently by Dr. Blair Stewart, president of the Associated Colleges of the Midwest at a conference of the ten schools. Lawrence College is a member of the ACM.

Stewart told faculty delegates meeting at Monmouth College that preliminary studies for one project, a faculty student program in Central America, have been completed and will be presented later this month at a meeting in Racine, Wis. Among the ACM investigators for the program has been Donald Lemke of the Lawrence education department who has just spent a month in Guatemala.

Fields of Study

He is one of nine professors who in the last year have received fellowships enabling them to identify fields of study in Central America for ACM faculty and students. The professors represented the Spanish, political science, sociology, anthropology, history, biology, economics and education departments of their respective colleges.

Preliminary indications are that Central American students and faculty would also cooperate in the project, Stewart said. It is too early to say whether the program will be feasible or not, he indicated, but a preliminary report is favorable, this program could be in operation at the start of the 1963-64 academic year.

Study in India

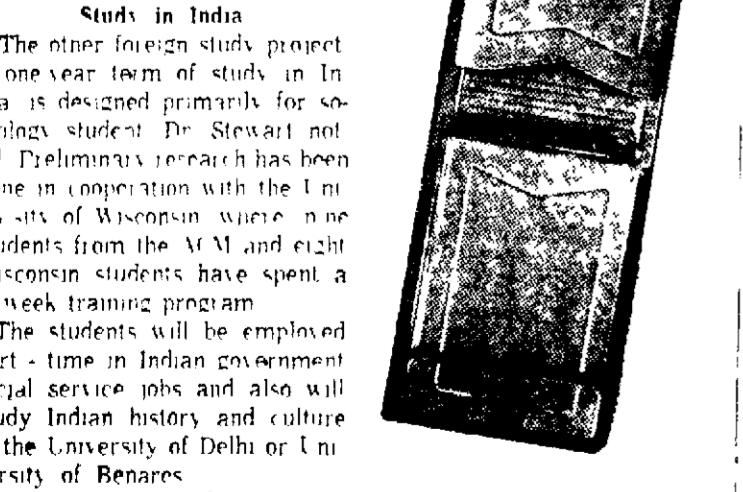

The other foreign study project is a one-year term of study in India designed primarily for sociology students. Dr. Stewart noted that preliminary research has been done in cooperation with the University of Wisconsin where nine students from the ACM and eight Wisconsin students have spent a 12-week training program.

The students will be employed part-time in Indian government social service jobs and also will study Indian history and culture at the University of Delhi or University of Benares.

One Lawrence student, Donald Kersomeyer, Wausau, was a member of the pilot group sent to India last year to test the program. He will return to the campus this fall. Two other Lawrentians, Joanne Banthin, Brookview, Ill., and David Telleen, Cambridge, Ill., are included in the group that left for India last week.

Appleton Youth Wins Set of Books First Time He Ever Entered Contest

BY LYNN HANNAGAN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Although winning contests seems to run in his family, no one was more surprised than 12-year-old Danny Schubring when he learned he was one of five national winners in the Young Hobbs C. L. U. B. safety slogan contest published in the Post-Crescent.

It was the first contest he ever entered.

Danny, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schubring, 1112 W. Spring St., Appleton, long had watched his father finish "in the money."

He decided to make his own debut with Cappy Dick.

Reward for his efforts is a 12-volume set of the Encyclopedia Britannica's Great Books for Children, his national prize and a Form O-Cram game, his local prize.

The Wilson Junior High School seventh grader captured the prizes by figuring out the safety slogan "Be Careful in Traffic!" and by decorating his entry with pictures of traffic signs cut from his 16-year-old brother D.G.'s driver's manual.

Almost Forgotten

He entered with little thought of winning. In fact, news of Danny's luck sent the Schubring household into a flurry in search of handling of farm feeds from field to feedlot for the Kaukauna firm.

We plan to continue all phases of the Algoma operations and foresee no major changes in personnel. We believe that the union of Badger's product with those of Algoma's will increase Algoma's production and employment," Kuehn said.

Kuehn continued by explaining that Badger was eager to see the Karl Kuehn indicated that the Algoma operations expand and products of the Algoma Machine prosper and that Badger Northland and Foundry Co. will help company land would lend aid and assistance to the cycle of automatic it could to Algoma.

of the "puzzle issue" of the Post-Crescent. No one was quite sure what he had won.

Other contests have had their part in Danny's life. His collection of toy cars is a main hobby, originated when his father gave the boy a model car he had won in a contest. Danny was interested and went on from there.

Another hobby is his collection of glass and china dogs, begun when Danny was in third grade. His dogs fill a large shelf in the Schubring house.

Enjoys Camping

But Danny's life is not all collecting. The Schubring's summer weekends are spent visiting parks in and out of state, traveling by trailer. This summer the Schubring family spent some time in the Black Hills, S. D.

One big advantage of trailer life according to Danny, is the fishing that goes with it. Danny and his father have done their share of the sport in almost every place the family has traveled, angling mostly for perch and northern.

It looks as if Danny's newest hobby will be reading. Although he has already read several of the books included in the Great Books series, he is looking forward to the rest.

"It's pretty exciting," he says, with a shy grin.

Plan Meeting On Setting Up Finance Office

Council Committee
To Discuss Idea
With Tax Group

Finance Committee members agreed to hold an informal meeting Sept. 27 at 7:30 p.m. to discuss recommendations contained in a report of the Wisconsin Expenditure Survey regarding the municipality's financial administrative setup.

The council's finance committee held an unscheduled meeting at city hall Monday after lacking a quorum to conduct business last week.

The expenditure survey report, prepared at the request of the Appleton Taxpayers' Association, recommends creation of a finance division within the city government to be headed by a finance officer.

Mayor Clarence Mitchell originally suggested that a meeting be held "of all parties involved." He mentioned aldermen, department heads and representatives of the taxpayers' group.

Another development Monday was a letter a representative of the taxpayers' association sent to the mayor and council.

Hope to Meet

Richard V. Allen, association vice president said in part: "We hope to be able to meet in the near future, with members of appropriate committees and interested city officials to discuss these proposals."

With his letter, Allen included the original finance structure revision proposals and two alternative plans that were contained in the extensive report.

Five Men Fined For Winnebago Fishing Violations

CHILTON — Five men were fined in Calumet County Court this week for boating and fishing violations on Lake Winnebago.

Joseph Telisz, 25, 2217 Spencer St., Appleton paid $25. He was arrested Aug. 5 for fishing on Lake Winnebago without a non-resident license. Although he now resides in Appleton, the length of his residency did not qualify him for a resident fishing license.

Bruce J. Mitchell, 21, 910 E. Atlantic St., Appleton, was fined $15 for fishing on Lake Winnebago without a license. He was arrested Sept. 3.

Fined $15 for operating a motor boat without life preservers for each occupant was Ivor Lewis, 22, Rechenbach made the arrests.

Girl Injured After Falling From Auto

Sandra Rosenthal, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rosenthal, 1302 E. Fremont St. was injured and taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital when she fell from the rear seat of a car driven by her father.

The car was turning at a corner at Fremont and Oneida streets when the rear door flew open and Sandra fell out. She received bruises and skinned knees.

702 N. Rankin St., Appleton. The offense occurred Sept. 3.

Hank H. Eichhorst, 47, and Tony Kobussen, 64, both of Milwaukee, were fined $10 each for failure to have life preservers in their boats. They were arrested Sept. 1.

Conservation Warden Keith Rechenbach made the arrests.

Minding Your Business

By Cyrus Barrett, Jr.

DEAR CY:

...representatives build good going. Even a policeman can get into businesses that last for years. I trouble with too much time on know of one case where a Texas policeman started with such a shoe rose to become an important executive in a small way and active with the firm.

Try contacting the Knapp Bros. in Brockton, Mass., or the Mason Shoe Mfg. Co. in Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, or the Doublewear Shoe Co., 315 East Lake Street, Wisconsin, or the Doublewear Shoe Co., 315 East Lake Street, Minneapolis. Being a policeman, you might be one of your best shoe endorsements.

DEAR BOLEN:

Shoes wear out, and everyone is either in the process of needing paying them high, wide, and hand-wanted another pair. Several companies, selling shoes directly to men through home salesmen, and capital investment. With the re-out a hat. It is unlike anything offers excellent plans requiring no on the market and works beautiful. What can we do to find out peat sales factor in shoes, many fully keeping the elements from

DORA M.

DEAR DORA:

When in-laws slash their way into estates, they cut gaping wounds that never heal. I know of brothers and sisters who don't speak, and little cousins that have never been allowed to play together. Rely on your husband's judgment. If he is satisfied with the property distribution, don't dive in and antagonize. But, if you want to make a case of your brother-in-law's integrity, have your husband hire a lawyer and learn the truth to your satisfaction.

Hedy Lamarr Says She Can't Pay Attorneys

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Hedy Lamarr says she can't pay two suing attorneys $15,000 in fees because she couldn't even buy a postage stamp with profits from her latest movie.

Attorneys Morton B. Harper and William G. Israel testified in Superior Court Monday the actress was to pay them from profits of her Italian-made "Love of Three Queens."

CY

Miss Lamarr said there were no profits. Judge Brodie Ahlport took the case under submission.

Allan Cain's Veracity Backed By Witnesses at Bar Hearing

Testify Lawyer, Imprisoned for Tax Evasion, Known as Truthful

A half-dozen witnesses testified this morning that imprisoned Atty. Allan C. Cain's reputation for truth and veracity was "good" or "excellent" in the communities in which he lived and practiced.

The statements were taken in the circuit court room in Appleton as the State Board of Bar Commissioners concluded its investigation into the tax evasion conviction of Cain, prominent Fox River Valley trial lawyer, and his wife, Margaret. Evidence obtained in the investigation could lead to disciplinary action by the bar against Cain.

Former State Supreme Court Justice Henry Hughes, Oshkosh, Cain's attorney, called six witnesses this morning. They were Dr. Donald Kasten, Kaukauna optometrist; Lt. Jack Frenz, special investigator for the Outagamie County Sheriff's Department; Wilfred Vandenberg, manager of the Kimberly Savings and Loan Association; Dr. Donald Curtin, Kimberly, and L. O. Cooke and Elbert C. Joyce, Neenah attorneys.

Admit Testimony
Hughes and Special State Prosecutor Rudolph Reges spent the first hour of this morning's hearing admitting to the record portions of testimony taken during Cain's 1961 trial in Milwaukee Federal Court.

Among the items entered were Judge Luther M. Swygert's findings at the conclusion of the trial May 4, 1961, and a statement of the jury's findings at the time Cain and his wife were sentenced. Also entered, among others, were excerpts of testimony from Edward Schwalbach, special agent for the Internal Revenue Service, and the full testimony of Judges H. F. Arps and H. A. Bunde, Atty. John B. Menn, and Atty. David Fulton, both of Appleton.

Interrogation of witnesses by Hughes was brief. The questions concerned largely Cain's reputation in the community with respect to truth, veracity, integrity, fairness, etc.

Discuss Illness
Dr. Curtin, however, was questioned concerning Cain's cancer affliction, an aspect of the case which played a prominent part in the Milwaukee trial. Dr. Curtin, who described himself as a "long-time, very good" friend of the attorney, said Cain developed a "fatalistic attitude" about his affliction. "He was convinced that it would destroy him... it changed his entire character," the doctor testified.

Dr. Curtin said he had heard "some disparaging remarks" about Cain's reputation but, he added, "many of these same people would say in the same breath 'but if I got in a jam I'd want Cain to take care of me.'"

Penalties Vary
Retired Columbia County Judge Elton J. Morrison, acting as special referee in the matter, heard this morning's testimony and that taken Monday at Federal Prison in Sandstone, Minn., where Cain is serving a one-year term.

Judge Morrison will consider the evidence and make a recommendation to the State Supreme Court which can either disbar, suspend, fine or impose other penalties on Cain. There is no timetable for the action but Judge Morrison's recommendations probably will be made within 90 days, court sources believe.

Cain and his wife were convicted of understating their taxable income by $60,674 on their 1953 to 1956 returns thereby evading $19,946 in taxes. They were fined $2,000 each and sentenced to one year in federal prison. Mrs. Cain is serving her term in the federal reformatory for women at Alderson, W. Va.

False Alarm Nets Youths Punishment

NEENAH — The seriousness of turning in false fire alarms struck three Neenah youths with added impact Tuesday afternoon when they were given stiff penalties by County Judge James Sarres.

Presiding over a juvenile court session at the Neenah police station, Judge Sarres ordered the youths — two 17 years old and one 16 years old — to appear at the Neenah police station on successive Saturdays and write lengthy essays.

One of the two 17-year-old youths was ordered to appear only two Saturdays. His composition will be a 1,000-word consideration of the true meaning of friendship.

The other two youths were ordered to appear on four Saturdays, each to compose a 2,000-word essay — one on fire prevention service and the other on the history of the Neenah Fire Department.

A lengthy investigation led to the apprehension of the three youths after they turned in a false alarm at 8:18 p.m. Sept. 2. Neenah fire trucks responding to the alarm were sent to the Edward Lemke residence at 335 Washington Ave.

Two Injured At Intersection

Two drivers received minor injuries in an accident Tuesday at N. Morrison and E. Winnebago streets.

Treated for cuts and released from St. Elizabeth Hospital was Miss Mary J. Topp, 316 E. Washington St. Harold P. Kurtz, 26, 120 E. Wisconsin Ave., received a bruise to his head and cuts and was treated by his physician.

Kurtz was driving south on N. Morrison, and Miss Topp was driving east on E. Winnebago when the accident occurred.

Hawk Intended as Xavier Mascot Lost Temporarily

NEENAH — Appleton Xavier High School athletic teams (the Hawks) may not know it but they almost lost their intended mascot—a Canadian red-tailed hawk owned by John Besser III, 17, 415 E. Wisconsin Ave., Neenah.

The bird was reported missing to Neenah police at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday after John had been working with the bird in the back yard of his home. He had secured the bird with a leash before he went inside the house. When he returned, the bird was gone.

Hampered by a six-foot leash and leather anklets binding its legs, the bird was not expected to get far. It didn't.

The hawk, (a female), was located about 8 a.m. today enjoying herself in a bird bath at the home of Mrs. H. K. Babcock, 433 E. Wisconsin Ave., Neenah.

John was already off to school, so Mr. and Mrs. Besser sought to retrieve the hawk. Although it flew up into a tree, they finally enticed it to trade its perch for a piece of liver.

Now safely in her basement cage, the hawk awaits her master, John... and perhaps duty this year as a mascot with the Xavier Hawks.

Police Check Two Deaths Bodies of Men In Early 30s Found Today

The bodies of two men in their early 30's were discovered this morning. Both apparently took their own lives.

Robert Doll, 32, 2212 N. Division St., was found dead in his bedroom, and Carl Kummacher, who would have been 33 today, was found dead in his car in a garage at the home of his mother, Mrs. Fred Kummacher, route 3, Kaukauna. Doll was a music instructor at St. Mary High School, Menasha, and formerly taught at Brillion.

Doll died by strangulation, Deputy Coroner Dr. Joseph Benton ruled. Kummacher's death is still being investigated by Coroner Bernard Kemps.

Doll was found by the owner of the house where he roomed, John Skidmore, 29. Doll had tied a bathrobe cord about his neck and a belt around his feet. The bathrobe cord was attached to the bedpost and Doll was found face down on the floor beside the bed, police said.

Kummacher had gone to the garage near his mother's home about 8:30 p.m., relatives said. His mother went to the garage about 7 a.m. and found her son. She notified the sheriff's department.

Oshkosh Policemen Have Work Week Cut, Duties Rearranged

Trainees Will Replace Patrolmen In Office; Add 2 More Squad Cars

OSHKOSH — A re-organization of the Oshkosh police department work schedule has been announced to permit a reduction in the work week from 42 to 40 hours effective Oct. 1, and to provide greater police protection during night hours.

Major changes will be to eliminate walking beats on the day shift and to eliminate the use of patrolmen behind the counter in the police station.

Five patrolmen now on the day shift will be switched to night duties. The counter job will be handled by five police trainees who will be hired Oct. 15. The trainees will rotate shifts.

A library will be set up at the counter so the trainees can study police work while not engaged in other duties.

Supervisory personnel, including three captains, one lieutenant and four sergeants, also will be put on a rotating shift basis.

More Patrol Cars
Two additional patrol cars will be purchased, making a total of six.

The new shift alignment will have 10 patrolmen on the 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. shift, and 16 each on the 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. and 11

Large Drapery Taken From Appleton Church

A large drapery, valued at about $20 was taken sometime Saturday from the First Assembly of God church, 320 N. Durkee St.

The Rev. Mr. V. N. Hillstad, pastor, said the front door of the church had been left open. The drapery was about 12 feet by 7 feet and was in the community room.

Bombers Fined $100 Each in County Court

Young Men Also Get Probation for Exploding Dynamite

Judge Gustave J. Keller Tuesday fined two Appleton youths $100 each after they admitted setting off at least three explosive charges in the city. They were placed on probation for one year for what he termed "a serious and disturbing" situation.

William Isenberg, 18, 529 N. Lincoln Ave., and James Miller, 19, 1910 N. Lawe St., pleaded guilty Monday to three counts of disorderly conduct as a result of exploding dynamite bombs at Erb Park, Xavier High School and Riverside Cemetery last week. They paid the fines.

Others Endangered
Judge Keller fined the two on the first count and withheld sentence on the other two counts. He ordered them to contact the Outagamie County Guidance Center.

Judge Keller said the most disturbing factor in the case was that the men primed the bombs with fuses long enough "to give the defendants sufficient time to get away in safety but gave no consideration to innocent adults or children, or even animals, who could have been seriously injured."

Both men pleaded guilty Monday and were held in the Outagamie County jail overnight.

Mayor Mitchell Backs Bid For Armory Site Donation

City Hall Parking Change Suggested

Area Should be Reserved for Employees, Traffic Engineer Says

The parking area adjacent to the city hall building — kicked around as a political football for years — should be reserved for use by city employees.

This was the recommendation Tuesday by City Planner-Traffic Engineer Walter C. Rasmussen in an extensive report to the board of public works. Rasmussen had been requested to make the parking lot survey and report back to the board.

Aldermen claim the city hall parking lot, which presently has no legal restrictions that would hold up in court, has been one of their biggest municipal headaches over the years. The committee agreed to study the report and will refer it to the public safety committee once a decision has been made to make it an official parking facility.

Present Setup
Under the present setup at the city hall lot, parking spaces are on a first come, first serve basis.

In addition to city employees, it is used by salesmen, firemen, downtown shoppers and the general citizenry when space permits.

It is usually parked to overflow and very often motorists return to their vehicles to find them "parked in" by others.

In his report, Rasmussen said he considered alternate proposals and listed their advantages and disadvantages.

Rasmussen specifically recommended that the city hall parking lot be expanded to 90-degree parking.

Scout Honored For Saving Boy From Drowning

Menasha Explorer Gets Certificate From Court of Honor

Michael Murphy, an Explorer Scout in Post 55, sponsored by St. Patrick Church, Menasha, Tuesday was awarded a certificate of merit by the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America for saving a small boy from drowning, May 19.

The award was presented at a meeting of the executive board of Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America. Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Murphy, 410 10th St., Neenah.

Michael saved the life of 3-year-old Thomas Schweitzer who had fallen into the Neenah channel of the Fox River at the foot of Clark Street. He saw the child in deep water about 15 feet from shore, struggling frantically to stay afloat. He swam to the child and pulled him ashore. Artificial respiration was not needed.

George Sears, chairman of the Valley Council advancement committee, presided at the presentation. Robert Schwartz, a member of the Tri-City District advancement committee, described Michael's bravery.

John Whitney, Valley Council president, presented a certificate of congratulations to the Rev. Michael Koch of St. Patrick parish.

Wisconsin National Guard Asks Prompt Answer on Request for Land in Appleton Industrial Park

The Wisconsin National Guard has the full support of Mayor Clarence Mitchell to build a new half million dollar armory on city-owned land in Appleton to serve the Fox Cities region.

Mitchell made his position known after the council received a letter from the adjutant general's office in Madison urging city officials to expedite consideration of the land request.

"I'm all for consolidating the national guard operations so that the armory to be built here would not only serve Appleton but also Neenah and Menasha," Mitchell said.

$400,000 Payroll
The letter from the state, written by retired Col. Dan A. Hardt, a member of the state armory board, was discussed briefly at Tuesday's meeting of the board of public works but no recommendation was made. Aldermen were informed there might be a new development concerning the site land which could be made available.

Need Water, Sewer
In addition to the land, the state wants the city to provide water and sewer facilities to the site.

Company Offers To Sell Land
The Bahcall Investment Co., made it clear it will make an exception for Appleton when it 34.6 acres of land to the City of Appleton at a cost of $85,000. The parcel of land is located adjacent to the city's industrial park.

"It is our belief that this would be an ideal location for the proposed new armory building," wrote Alvin B. Ziven to the mayor and common council.

Ziven suggested by using the land being offered, it would enable the City of Appleton to retain the complete industrial park for factory sites and industrial purposes.

"Also, the fact that this parcel of land is adjacent to the industrial park will serve as a means to expedite the development of said industrial park," Ziven said.

Bahcall Investment Co. would require approximately $400,000 paid in January, 1963, and the balance to be determined later, should the city decide to buy the land.

The new one-story east wing will provide for the expansion and coordination of service facilities. The new four-story south wing will retrieve the loss of beds in the old building, and will include space for the psychiatric and maternity departments.

Several major departments will be expanded, including maternity, clinical laboratories, X-ray, physical therapy and neuro-psychiatric departments. A new outpatient department, improvement of emergency facilities and centralization of the dietary department also are included in the plans.

The mayor recalled when the subject of a new armory first was discussed earlier this year, he and other aldermen wanted to able for an armory and vehicle service center proposed by the National Guard.

In addition to the original cost of the building, the payroll from such an operation would be in excess of $400,000, according to Hardt. Some aldermen are taking the position the guardsmen are already stationed here and would be receiving that income anyway.

Mitchell said he would like to see the armory project "move as fast as possible."

The mayor recalled when the subject of a new armory first was discussed earlier this year, he and other aldermen wanted to definitely that the building of a new armory for National Guard units of Appleton, Neenah and Menasha will be first on the list of new armories built in the State of Wisconsin in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1963. It therefore becomes imperative that an adequate site be secured," Hardt said in his letter to the council.

Tavern Patron Walks Through Plate Glass Door
Daryl E. Meyer, 25, 131 S. Oneida St. was taken to Appleton Memorial Hospital for treatment of cuts he received when he walked through a plate glass window in a downtown tavern early today.

After treatment, Meyer was taken to the Appleton city jail where he was held for disorderly conduct.

Police received a complaint Meyer was creating a disturbance by crawling on the bar. When he was asked to leave by the bartender, he hit the bartender and then walked through the window. Police found Meyer behind a store in the 100 block of W. College Avenue.

Council for Retarded To Hold Meeting In Plamann School
The Outagamie County Council for Retarded Children will hold its first meeting at Plamann School at 8 p.m. today.

Plans for the group's 1962 fund drive will be made at the meeting.

The Council, a parents' group, cooperated with the Outagamie County Citizens for Retarded Children, which built the school and gave it to the county. The school was opened this fall.

Mrs. Herbert Brock, teacher of the nursery class sponsored by the Council, said there is room for one or two more children between the ages of 4 and 7 in the class. The nursery is held at All Saints Episcopal Church.

Announce Registration Hours of MVS Courses
MENASHA — Registrations for homemaking classes of Menasha Vocational and Adult School will be from 1 to 3 p.m. Thursday and 9 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. Friday. Incorrect hours were published in Tuesday's paper.

General course signups will be 7 to 9 p.m. Monday in the school office.

Explorer Scout Michael Murphy received a certificate of merit from the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America Tuesday for saving a small boy from drowning in Neenah, May 19. At the presentation ceremony are, from left, Sgt. William Richey of the Neenah Police Department, the Rev. Michael Koch of St. Patrick Church, Menasha, which sponsors Michael's Explorer Post 55; Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Murphy, 410 10th St., Neenah, and George Sears, Appleton, chairman of the Valley Council advancement committee, who made the presentation. Rid Kaukauna Of Old Sheds, Aldermen Say

Inspector, Attorney Told to Enforce Law On Unsafe Buildings

KAUKAUNA — Council members Tuesday night instructed the city building inspector and city attorney to enforce an ordinance against unsafe buildings in the city, as recommended by David Specht, Second ward alderman.

Specht pointed out that unused buildings on a McKinley Street lot are unsafe, unsightly and a hazard to children in the area. The buildings include an abandoned chicken coop, an out building and other small sheds the alderman said.

Aldermen indicated the buildings could be classed as an attractive nuisance to children. He said children breaking into the buildings could be injured.

Citing work being done in Appleton to improve old buildings, aldermen felt it was time Kaukauna took steps to eliminate some of the dilapidated dwellings in the community. Start with the small sheds and work up to larger buildings, one alderman suggested.

Permanent Roads

Requests from residents of Plank Road and Florence Street for concrete roads was referred to the board of public works for consideration in the 1963 budget. Residents signing the petition said they believe the cost will be $6.50 per square foot.

Council members approved the appointment of David Specht, Second ward alderman, to a one-year term on the board of electrical examiners. Frederick Ludke received a three-year term on the utility commission. Both appointments were made by Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon.

Parking Plan Change Asked

a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

Provisions be made for allocation of parking privileges to specific city employees and that these employees be provided with proper means of identification.

Arrangements be made for proper enforcement of the ordinance by the police department.

Rasmussen said he discussed the proposed program with Police Chief Earl Wolff, who advised that effective enforcement of the lot's parking provisions is possible and practical.

Maximum Demand

There is a maximum demand of 35 car parking spaces by city employees, Rasmussen said.

Rasmussen said when there are periodic times which require groups of citizens to park at city hall, such as elections and tax collection time, special arrangements could be made to provide motorists with special parking.

Three alternate plans for use of the parking lot proposed and studied by Rasmussen included:

(1) Reserve the lot for citizen parking only; (2) Reserve the facility for city employee parking only; and (3) Have combined usage of the lot by city employees and citizens.

Rigid Enforcement

Noting that under his recommended plan persons coming to city hall could not park on the lot, Rasmussen said this disadvantage could be offset by converting the on-street parking adjacent to city hall on Oneida, Franklin and Appleton streets to short term metered or free parking for those people.

Rasmussen said no matter what policy is finally adopted by the common council, it will require rigid enforcement to be effective.

Board members told Rasmussen it was a well prepared report, but would need further study.

"We have had more trouble with this city hall lot than the whole parking program of the City of Appleton," was the way Mayor Clarence Mitchell summed it up.

Outagamie Cattle Win Class Honors

Nelson Praises Future Farmer Groups at Brown County Show

BY RAY PAGEL
Post-Crescent News Service

Personal congratulations from Gov. Gaylord Nelson were an unexpected dividend for a happy group of Future Farmers of America youngsters at the Brown County fairgrounds Tuesday afternoon.

Residents of Brown, Kewaunee, Manitowoc and Outagamie Counties were the winners of the grand championships at the 18th annual northeastern Wisconsin livestock exposition.

Young Robert Nusbaum, 13-year-old rural De Pere lad, tried gamely to live up to a family tradition. He went all the way to the top to capture the grand championship steer trophy, duplicating a feat achieved by his brother John, now 18, in 1959.

Quality Meat Trophy

Judy Leleuvre, 15, Casco, not only repeated her 1961 performance of having the grand champion lamb on the hoof, but took the trophy in the quality meats contest as well.

For John Last, 14, Valders, this was his first time in the show. Against veteran competitors up to 20 years old, you'd hardly expect last to be first. He was, though, with grand champion barrow.

The governor had special congratulations for Janet Brown, of rural Appleton, who showed the grand champion steer carcass, followed by Michael Hofferger and Janet has won a bushel of ribbons over the years, and this was her grand finale. She'll be 21 on Friday, ineligible for further participation.

Outagamie County also claimed the barrow carcass championship. This went to Danny Sams, a 16-year-old Hortonville boy.

There were 245 boys and girls in the competition. They represented 14 counties and entered a total of 580 animals.

Today the animals were scheduled to be sold at auction. In the ring where the sheep were judged, it was pretty much a Leleuvre family show. Judy took the grand championship; her brother Greg, 12, captured reserve honors, and sister Sherry, 13, had the reserve pen of lambs.

Rose Van Rossum, of Brown County near Kaukauna, was winner of the champion pen of lambs award.

Reserve honors for barrows, behind John Last's Berkshire, went to a Poland China entered by Myron Velicer, Luxemburg, Wis. He was approved by the state, deteriorated. The type of stone used met specifications at the time, Brownson said, but no longer does.

Other Winners

Other beef showmen's placements, in order, went to Beverly Moelke, Mequon; Janet Brown, Appleton; Howard Pipkorn, Mequon, and Robert Nusbaum.

Carol Van Rossum, Brown County, was winner of the lamb showmen's award. She was followed by Michael Hofferger and Everett Eckstein, Larsen; Rose Van Rossum, Brown County, and Wayne Kaster, De Pere.

Mike Melahn, Pickett, was first among barrow showmen. Richard Miller, Plymouth, was second, and Michael Schmitz, Chilton, third.

Tuesday evening the exhibitors were guests at a banquet at the Beaumont Hotel. The event is sponsored annually by the agriculture committee of the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce.

2-Mile Section Of 'C' Stabilized With Cement

A two-mile section of County Trunk C from the Shawano County line south is being stabilized with cement this week.

The project will cost about $23,000, according to Highway Commissioner Clarence Brownson. The stabilization was necessary because base has deteriorated on the roadway constructed in 1957 and 1958 as a county federal aid project.

Brownson said the stabilization consists of breaking up the present backtop surface and about four inches of the road base, adding a mixture of about 5 per cent cement and water and relaying the material. A wearing surface of about an inch of blacktop will be applied later.

Similar type of stabilization work has been done previously in Seymour, Little Chute and Kimberly, Brownson said. The work on C was required because stone used in the base, which was approved by the state, deteriorated. The type of stone used met specifications at the time, Brownson said, but no longer does.

Police Investigate Three Vandalism Cases to Automobiles

Police are investigating three automobile vandalism cases involving slashed tires, a slashed convertible top and a missing rear view mirror.

Robert L. Smith, 1425 1/2 S. Madison St., reported Tuesday that two tires on his car were slashed some time Thursday. He said the left rear and a tire in the spare compartment were cut by a knife.

George Hoeffel, 526 W. Wisconsin Ave., said a rear view mirror and a white sweater were taken from his car while it was parked Tuesday in the 400 block of W. Lawrence Street.

Ronald Hopfensperger, 1913 E. John St., reported to police Tuesday his convertible car top was slashed in 14 places some time Friday while the car was parked near his home. The slashes ranged from 6 to 18 inches in length.

Valley Baptist Chapel Will Become Church

Constituting Services Set for Monday; Series of Revival Services Planned

The Valley Baptist Chapel will be officially constituted as a church in special services at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Knights of Pythias Hall. The Rev. Byron R. Epps is pastor.

The congregations of the Chapel and the sponsoring Highland Crest Baptist Church, Green Bay, on Aug. 15 approved a recommendation by the Highland Crest missions committee that the chapel be constituted.

The new church will be affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention, the Wisconsin-Minnesota Baptist association and the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Revival Services

Revival services will be held at the new church, 406 W. Wisconsin Ave., Tuesday through Friday, Sept. 25 through 28.

The Valley Baptist Chapel started as a vacation Bible school in July, 1960. Sunday school and morning worship services were started in December, 1960, and the Rev. Mr. Epps became pastor in January, 1962.

A committee now is looking for a larger temporary meeting place and a site for a future building.

A nursery will be provided during the constituting service for all children under four years of age at 406 W. Wisconsin Ave. A reception there will follow the services.

Constituting Service

The Rev. Kenneth E. King, pastor of Highland Crest Baptist Church, will make introductions at the constituting service. Responses will be given by Appleton Mayor Clarence A. Mitchell, the Rev. Thomas C. Lawler, Chamblee, Ga., who will conduct the revival services; B. J. Williamson, moderator of the Wisconsin-Minnesota Baptist Association, Rochester, Minn.; and Cecil A. Ray, secretary of the

Tipsy Driver Fined $200

Heafford Junction Man Tested .22 On Drunkometer

Eugene Spillman, 62, Heafford Junction, was fined $200 and costs when he appeared before Judge Gustave J. Keller in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Tuesday on charges of drunken driving. The judge also revoked Spillman's drivers' license for one year.

Spillman was arrested May 22 because his car went into a ditch on State 125 about 2:50 a.m. He was taken to Outagamie County jail where he tested .22 on the drunkometer. A reading of .15 is considered evidence of intoxication.

He appeared in County Court June 25 and pleaded innocent of the charge. The trial was set for Tuesday. There was no jury trial.

Air Passenger Totals Reported

Green Bay Seventh, Oshkosh Eighth in North Central Stops

OSHKOSH — Green Bay ranks seventh and Oshkosh eighth among North Central Airlines stops in relation to the average number of passengers originating daily.

Those figures were contained in a report on feeder airlines received by the Winnebago County Aviation Committee from the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB).

The report was the eighth quarterly report issued in conjunction with the CAB "use it or lose it" policy for airline service. Under this policy, a community may lose its airline service if there is an average of less than 5 passengers daily originating from the city. North Central Airlines has 14 such stops, according to the report.

Green Bay averages an average of 76.40 passengers daily with the average at Oshkosh was 70.05. Appleton averaged 15.59. Other area airport figures were Clintonville, 4.95 and Wisconsin Rapids — Stevens Point, 12.72.

Chicago headed the list of North Central stops with a daily average of 716.28 passengers. Milwaukee was second with 268.48. Following were Minneapolis, 222.32; Detroit, 178.65; Madison, 110.99; Duluth, 103.38, and then Green Bay and Oshkosh.

Storms Returning to Plains States After Tuesday's Destruction

Thunderstorms are expected to return to the wind and rain-rattled plains states where a violent thunderstorm caused $1 million damage to Abilene, Kan., Tuesday.

Winds of 70 and 80 miles an hour shrieked through the town of 7,130 late in the day, tumbling trees and power lines and damaging scores of buildings. Elsewhere in Kansas, Emporia was soaked with 1.9 inches of rain. Concordia with 1.5 inches and Hill City with 1.75 inches.

Icy blanket. Twenty-five miles northeast of Kansas City, hail 3/4 inches in diameter rattled down on Holt, Mo., leaving an icy blanket up to one inch thick.

Across the nation in New York State, the fading summer died a little as snowflakes fell with a Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagner, frigid rain shower near Binghamton. The Weather Bureau said the rain and snow mixture was at least a month early.

It will be somewhat cooler tonight in the northeast, the Ohio and Tennessee valleys and the northern and central Mississippi valleys with little change in temperature elsewhere in the nation. There will be scattered showers in extreme northern New England and Appalachians and in southern Florida. Thunderstorms will be widespread in the eastern Plains. (AP Wirephoto)

Town, Country Days Planned

Kaukauna Chamber Will Sponsor Fall Business Promotion

KAUKAUNA — The retail committee of the chamber of commerce met at the Legion Club Monday and set Oct. 19 and 20 as "Town and Country Homecoming" days.

Robert Franz, president of the Jaycees, offered the services of that organization to help with the event. Plans were made for stores to have special treats and promotions to attract patrons. Entertainment for both business areas, northside and southside, will be arranged for Friday night.

A parade is being planned for 9:30 a.m. Saturday with floats from the Kaukauna High School Homecoming and the high school band. Area 4-H clubs business places and others will be asked to enter floats and marching units.

A pumpkin face contest is planned for both sides of the river Saturday afternoon at which time children will receive prizes for their efforts. Additional meetings will be held to work out details and committees will be set up to cover various phases of the fall promotion.
